After high school, Audrey faithfully served her country in World War II as a member of the United States Coast Guard - SPARS. On June 28, 1945 Audrey married the love of her life, Theodore (Ted) Blom. Ted also served in World War II in the U. S. Air Corp as a Pilot. Ted and Audrey were blessed with six loving children. The couple moved out to Eagle, WI in the 1950's and lived and worked together until Ted's untimely passing on November 14, 1963. After Ted's death, Audrey remained in Eagle, and continued to raise her younger children. For many years, she was employed by E.G. Artz, Inc. in Butler, WI as a bookkeeper.
