

Jerome T. "Jerry" Miszewski

Miszewski, Jerome T.

Jan. 18, 1941 - Sept. 6, 2011

Jerome T. "Jerry" Miszewski, 70, of Venice, formerly of Milwaukee, Wis. died Sept. 6, 2011.

Visitation is from 2 to 4 p.m. today at Farley Funeral Home, Venice Chapel. Services and interment in Milwaukee, Wis.

Jerry found peace at the age of 70, after a valiant and courageous battle with cancer. Adored husband of Patricia (nee Wenger). Loving father of Steve (Kim), Don (Melanie), James, and Susan (Larry) Warwick, and step-father of Brent (Susan) Becker, Shari (David) Dodd and John (Gail) Becker. Proud grandpa of Danielle and Steven (Kimberly) Miszewski, Matt and Nicole Miszewski, Taran and Whitney Miszewski, Sarah (Kris) Kelly, David (Jill) Becker, DJ and Justin Dodd, Joel and Christopher Becker, Jeremy and Josh Roybal and great-grandpa of Gabriel, Conner, Quinton, Zoey, Lucas and Brooklyn. Also survived by his brother George (Sharon) and best friends Tom and Randy Hacker, and favorite companion Savannah. Jerry was preceded in death by his brother Joseph, and sisters Sylvia Miszewski, Delores (Jerome) Schmidt, and Virginia (Richard) Deakin.

Jerry is a former Milwaukee, Wis. Police Officer (Badge No. 1366), and former Chief of Police of the village of Eagle, Wis. He was very proud of his law enforcement service his entire life. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Venice Police Department (K-9 Memorial in the memo section). Thank you to the Milwaukee Police Department for their assistance, and the Venice, Fla., West Allis and Wauwatosa, Wis. Police K-9 Units for their service, and a special "Thank you" goes out to the team at HealthSouth Rehabilitation, Tidewell Hospice and Florida Cancer Specialists. Your loving care and attentiveness is greatly cherished. Jerry had a heart filled with love for his family. He was a humble and unassuming gentleman and would do anything for his loved ones. For this we will forever love, miss and appreciate him. He is our hero.

To send condolences, please visit www.farleyfuneralhome.com.