

Robert Cruver

LAKE GENEVA — A former resident of Eagle, Robert Cruver died Wednesday at Elkhorn Hospital after several months illness.

Cruver, 60, had worked as a laborer until ill health forced him to retire. He moved from Eagle about 30 years ago.

He is survived by his wife Bernice, sons Steven, and Bradley and a daughter, Karen, all of Lake Geneva.

Other survivors include sisters Harriet Cruver of Delafield, Mrs. Marguerite Smart of Mukwonago and Mrs. Betty Munger of Delavan and brothers John of Hamden; Conn., Harry of Washington, D.C., and Warren and Myron of Milwaukee:

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 2 p.m. at the Derrick Funeral Home, Lake Geneva. Friends may call at the funeral home from 2 to 4 p.m. today and from 6 to 9 p.m. tonight.