Leo H. Hamann

EAGLE - A former Eagle Town farmer, Leo H. Hamann, 77, of Milwaukee, died Sunday at St. Mary's Hospital, Milwaukee.

Hamann was born in Troy Town, Walworth County and lived and farmed in Eagle Town before moving to Milwaukee. He was a member of both the Racine and Boys of 76 drum and bugle corps, active in Land o' Lakes baseball and a veteran of World War I.

Hamann is survived by a son Lyle of Milwaukee; brother William of Eagle; sisters Mrs. Esther Gale of Eagle, Mrs. Irene Cory of Dousman and Mrs. Ruth Gaskell of East Troy.

Funeral services will be in the Little Prairie Cemetery.

The body will lie in state Tuesday after 5 p.m.

The family suggests memorials to the Little Prairie and Eagle Methodist churches.
