George A. Muecke

THREE LAKES —
George A. Muecke, 55, formerly of Eagle, died Tuesday at Eagle River Memorial Hospital, apparently of a heart attack.

Muecke moved to Three Lakes from Eagle about 11 years ago. He lived in Eagle for 18 years, working for the state Conservation Department.

He was a past master of the William Perry Masonic Lodge in Eagle and owned a restaurant in Three Lakes. He also did some broadcasting for the Three Lakes radio station.

Muecke was a member of the Three Lakes Volunteer Fire Department and the city-county ambulance service.

Surviving are mother Diane of Three Lakes; son Gary of Eagle; and sisters Mrs. Ludwig (Henrietta) Pauly of Three Lakes, Mrs. Vivian Chetney of Hales Corners and Mrs. Charles (Carol) Wright of Williams Bay.

Funeral services will be at 1:30 p.m. Friday at the Gaffney Funeral Home in Eagle River, with burial in the Three Lakes Cemetery.

The family suggests memorials to the Three Lakes Volunteer Fire Department.
