

Mary Ruediger

EAST TROY — A native of Eagle who farmed in this area for about 20 years until 1970. Mrs. Mary Ruediger, died at New Berlin Memorial Hospital Sunday morning after a year-long illness. She had a heart ailment, a hospital spokesman said.

She was 65 and had lived at Elkhorn Rt. 3 (Highway ES in the town of Troy).

The former Mary Partridge, moved from Eagle with the family to Milwaukee, where she owned and operated a boarding house with her mother for many years.

After her mother died, she moved to East Troy and in 1958 was married to August Ruediger.

Mrs. Ruediger was a member of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Loomis-Martin American Legion post in East Troy.

Her only survivors are cousins.

Services will be at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Anderson Memorial Home with the Rev. Robert Benjamin officiating. Burial will be in the family lot at Oak Ridge Cemetery in Eagle. Friends may call at the funeral home from 4 to 9 p.m. Tuesday.