Richard W. Treichel

EAGLE — Services for Richard W. Treichel, 53, of Eagle Rt. 2, will be at 2 p.m. Monday at the Mealy Funeral Home, Eagle.

The Rev. David Kellin of the Eagle Methodist Church will officiate. Burial will be in Jericho cemetery. The body will lie in state after 4 p.m. Sunday.

Treichel was found dead at his home Friday morning of an apparent heart attack. He was pronounced dead by his uncle, Coroner James E. Welch.

Officials of the Charles Martin Asphalt Inc., Waukesha, asked sheriff's deputies to enter Treichel's home after he didn't report for work. Welch said Treichel had an appointment Thursday with his physician and was taking medication.

Treichel was born at Freeport, Ill., on March 9, 1918. During World War II he served with a military police unit in the U. S. Army from February 27, 1945, to July 29, 1946. He belonged to Sargent-Splechter-Schmidt American Legion Post No. 535 of Eagle and World War II Veterans.

Survivors are daughters Mrs. Patsy Brost, Mukwonago Rt. 3 and Mrs. Arlene Berlick, Eagle Rt. 1, and a sister, Mrs. Laura Miller of Salt Lake City, Utah.
