

18 Sep 1855 - 3 Jul 1916

DEATH OF FRANK J. ARENDORFER

On Friday, Frank J. Arendorfer, a farmer residing south of Eagle, was taken sick. The same night he was taken to Dr. Fitzgerald's hospital where he was operated on. Sunday he became much worse and all aid could not restore his life. He died Monday afternoon surrounded by his family and immediate relatives. The funeral was held yesterday morning and interment was in the new St. Theresa church cemetery. We will publish an extended obituary next week.

Eagle Quill