

THE EAGLE QUILL.

VOLUME XXII.

EAGLE, WAUKESHA COUNTY, WISCONSIN, JANUARY 24, 1913.

NUMBER 28.

IN AND ABOUT TOWN

A souvenir card showing team and wagon with three huge pumpkins was received from Mrs. C. Percy Newton, formerly Miss Lena Mackoldt, now in Oregon. Three large pumpkins make a wagon load there, and it seems to be a large load. Eagle folks will be glad to hear from the Newton family and of their success on the coast.

FOR RENT—The Underhill farm of 220 acres, section 12, Eagle. Good land, buildings and new barn. Address Theo. Klett, East Troy, or Bank of Eagle.

Reserved seats for "The Confederate Spy" are now on sale and over half are already gone, so do not put off selecting your seats early so as to get a choice location.

On Monday night, notwithstanding the cold weather, Eagle Camp installed its officers and had a fair audience.

"Married twenty-five years" was on the banner at the Draper home Friday. Friends and neighbors presented Mr. and Mrs. Draper with one-half dozen solid silver forks. Twenty-five years seems a long period; but a happy life, such as Mr. and Mrs. Draper have lived, shortens the time and they have to their credit besides the respect and confidence of the community, a fine home and a bright grown-up daughter, who occupies the responsible position of assistant postmistress. May they all live long and prosper.

Carl Kuetter, on the Mayhew farm, will have an auction Feb. 4th, and March 1st will move to the R. F. Sprague farm, which he has purchased.

President-elect Wilson, Wm. J. Bryan and Sen. LaFollette will address the North Carolina legislature soon on modern political subjects. How dare these democrats admit the Wisconsin political wolf into their fold? Are they not aware that at the opportune time he will proclaim to the United States that he alone is the only one who could not be tempted.

Mrs. Martha Lins was a Milwaukee visitor Saturday.

Miss Myrtle Manwaring of Milwaukee spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. W. C. Olsen.

Mr. Boyle of Racine spent Sunday with his cousin, John Buell, and family.

Will Machold spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in Milwaukee. Don't miss seeing "The Confederate Spy" at the Opera hall Saturday evening, Jan. 25th. Tickets on sale at J. J. Lorge's.

Frank Bradley arrived here from San Francisco, Cal., Monday night. He is visiting his aunt, Mrs. M. A. Hardell, in this village this week and will spend the remainder of the winter here and at Eagle.—Dousman Index.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Stallman have returned from their wedding trip, and are visiting Mrs. Stallman's brother, Harvey Clemmons, Jr., and his wife.

Fred Smart of Mukwonago visited Arthur Stead and family, Monday. Geo. Burton, Louis Richart and Ben Bovee spent Sunday at their respective homes here.

Mrs. Jay Stead and Mrs. Will Stephens will entertain the Ladies' Helping society next Thursday, Jan. 30, at the home of Mrs. Stead. All are invited.

Miss Lila Draper was a Milwaukee visitor Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mell of Chicago visited Niagara Falls, Connecticut, and New York for the past week.

Mrs. Harry Hurst of North Prairie was an Eagle visitor, Tuesday.

Miss Emma Briggs of Palmyra spent Sunday with Mrs. John Skidmore, Jr.

Mrs. E. DeWitt has gone to Oconomowoc to visit Mr. and Mrs. Rob. Peterson for a few weeks.

P. F. Brady of Waukesha had business at Eagle Wednesday.

Mrs. Lauretta Sherman of Waukesha is visiting Mrs. Sylvia Sherman.

Frank Sprague of Eagle, county road commissioner, has purchased the R. L. Porter home and will occupy it about Feb. 1st. The Porter home is located at the corner of Pearl and Pleasant streets and is one of the beautiful residences for which this village is known.—Mukwonago Chief.

Messrs. Garrity and Linehan of Genesee were Eagle visitors, Wednesday.

FOR SALE—Horse, buggy and harness. Small black horse, four years old, rubber-tired top buggy and single harness, nearly new. For information regarding same, address M. S. Ed. Fardy, Eagle, Wis.; phone No. 34.

R. N. A. INSTALLATION.

Golden Eagle Camp Installed Officers Tuesday Night. Theresa Witte Now Wields Gavel

On Tuesday night occurred the regular meeting of the Royal Neighbors of America, and this was the time set for installing the newly elected officers. A number of invited friends were so attended. Mrs. Martha Lins, retiring oracle, served as installing officer, and Miss Elizabeth Murphy as ceremonial marshal. The officers installed are Theresa Witte, C. C.; Flossie Belling, V. O.; Ida Olson, recorder; Susan Belling, receiver; Betsy A. Reeves, chancellor; Mary A. Enright and Mary A. Perry, sentinels; Engla Knight, manager; Miss Lottie Witte, marshal. The other officers are appointive. A banquet and social entertainment followed and all had one great evening.

MASK BALL.

A Large Number of Prizes Will Be Awarded.

After the play, "The Confederate Spy" on Saturday night, comes the mask ball on Monday night, Jan. 27, which is being arranged by a committee of Eagle Camp No. 1119, M. W. A., consisting of Wm. Hamann, Jr., and Edward Kuetter. The girls' orchestra of Milwaukee, too well known to need introduction, will furnish the music. The ladies will furnish the per-

Masks may be purchased from local dealers; tickets to dance and supper, $1.50; spectators, 25 cents. This is a so-called Woodman party and is intended for both old and young. All are invited and all will be welcome.

CELEBRATE TEN YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Perry Hosts at Pleasant Surprise Party in Their Honor

On Monday evening, Jan. 13th, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Perry were pleasantly surprised by their many relatives and friends who gathered at their home at Troy Lakes to help them celebrate their tenth wedding anniversary, or tin wedding.

The company was invited to the school house near by where a fine programme was given. The farce entitled "Coontown Courtship," in which the ardent wooer could not get up courage to ask his lady love, aroused Mr. Perry's sympathy, and later when called on for a speech he urged the boys not to put off the matter but come right to the point as matrimony wasn't nearly as bad and it's pictured to be, assuring them his only regret was that he was not married sooner.

Following this Laurence Clancy of East Troy was asked for a speech and responded in his usual witty and pleasing manner. He spoke very highly of Mr. and Mrs. Perry and told how his interests were always centered in Troy Lakes, the home of his childhood, where he attended school and later taught in the present school house. He lived in this vicinity all his life until he moved to East Troy, fifteen years ago.

The guests then returned to the home of the bride and groom and partook of an excellent banquet after which they spent the remainder of the evening with cards, games and a good time in general.

The presents were many and useful. Everyone returned to their homes feeling they had been royally entertained and hoping to help Mr. and Mrs. Perry celebrate many more of their anniversaries.

STOP—LOOK—LISTEN; OBSERVATIONS!

(By the Third Assistant)

Woodrow Wilson will abandon the ball at the coming inaugural, he says to save expense to the dear people. He is not particularly afraid, nor are his daughters, of the modern "bunny-hug," "turkey-trot," nor the "whirling-whirlygig." We are not any too familiar with these new fangled phrases and may have some of them wrong, but any way our President-elect seems to be returning to primeval ways in more ways than one. He wants it to be known that he is a "progressive" and that means going backwards. The old ways are better. There is no need of railroads nor steamboats nor telegraphs, nor telephones. The dear people who need his tender care are better off, if they don't have so many comforts and conveniences. There are a few other people who appreciate 250,000 miles of railroads, with 15,000 to 20,000 trains running nights, days and Sundays, carrying comforts to every part of the land. They are in improvement on the dog sled, the ox-cart and the stage coach—but as the Hon. Champ Clark says, in a recent letter, in his school boy days they used to teach that "there are many men of many minds" and I guess it is so, for the most mysterious thing in nature is why so many people are blind and always stand still and in their own light. The monopolies and corporations that do the greatest good to the greatest number at the least expense, are the most condemned, and the oftenest censured. Envy, jealousy and general hatefulness might account for part of these complaints, but the greatest cause by long ways, is absolute ignorance. People won't read, won't reason, and don't want to know the truth. Commercial affairs of all kinds will regulate themselves if let alone. Laws can't regulate waterfalls and turn them into powers that work for everyone. It takes genius, energy and tireless labor to bring forth all beneficial results. Why don't you help instead of hinder?

One Moment, Please!

A basket social and dance will be given by the pupils of the Eagle state graded school, assisted by local talent specialties at the Eagle town hall, Jan. 31st, Friday evening, at 8 o'clock.

A very attractive and interesting program has been arranged by the pupils, which, aided by the local specialties, should give enjoyment to old and young.

As a special attraction the Metropolitan six-piece orchestra of Milwaukee has been engaged to furnish music during the program and for the dance. This in itself is a rare treat and should bring out everybody who likes good music.

This social is for the benefit of the school and you should encourage it by your presence. We shall be disappointed if we don't see you there Friday evening, Jan. 31st.

Following is the program:

1. Selection, .....Orchestra
2. Dialogue, .....Smith Family
3. Folk Dance, .....The Circus
4. Violin Solo, .....Warren Clohisy
5. Recitation, .....Marie Marsh
6. March, .....Orchestra
7. Floats, .....
  1. Japanese
  2. Hollanders
  3. Clown
  4. Young America
8. Folk Dance, .....Toy Shop
9. Solo, .....Theo. Rhoades
10. Negro Specialties, John Wilton
11. Song—"Little Orphan Annie."
12. Selection, .....George Kalb

"THE CONFEDERATE SPY."

Local Talent Will Produce this Play at the Opera Hall Saturday night, January 25th.

Last week we presented the cast of characters and a synopsis of "The Confederate Spy", and this week we again call the attention of all to the time and place—namely, Eagle opera hall, Saturday evening, January 25th. Warren A. Clohisy is the director and home talent of known ability is assisting him. Admission charges are reasonable. In addition to the good it will do in developing and advancing home talent and bringing them to public notice, the play has a further good object since the proceeds will be used for embellishing and improving the property of St. Theresa's church, adding to appearances of the village. While we anticipate a large attendance because of local interest, we urge all to come as an encouragement to our young people. After the play will come the mask ball, Monday night.

DEATHS

John T. Burnell

John T. Burnell, aged 58 years, died Friday morning at his home at North Prairie and funeral services were held Sunday at the Methodist church in that village, Rev. J. W. Perry officiating.

John T. Burnell was born in the old log house on his father's farm in the town of Mukwonago and was the fifth child of John and Jennie (Cobb) Burnell. He was educated in the public schools and when of age was engaged by his father to work on the homestead farm. Farming has been his vocation for the major part of his life and by the terms of his father's will he received, in 1889, 191 acres of the homestead. In 1904 he purchased 198 acres of farm land four miles south of this city and went into dairying on an extensive scale. He became also a dealer in wool and following his retirement from active life resided at North Prairie.

Mr. Burnell was married in 1877 to Miss Catherine Hood, who survives him, together with their four children: Duke Burnell and Mrs. Arnold Torhorse, who reside near Waukesha; Eugene, at home, and Mrs. Guy S. Everts, Ruthon, Minn. Mrs. J. C. West and Mrs. E. H. Harrison of this city are sisters of Mr. Burnell.

GREAT ALFALFA, GRAIN AND CORN SHOW

Interesting Account Given of It by Peter C. Swartz

On Jan. 10 and 11 at Madison was held the largest and greatest alfalfa, grain and corn show ever held by members of the Wisconsin Agricultural Experiment association. It was the twelfth annual meeting of the society which has a list of over 1,600 active members. They are interested in progressive farming and growing of pure bred grains and corn. One thing of interest noticed by many was the increased number of people who attend this meeting and show to get in touch with the best methods of growing and securing grains of largest yield and best quality.

Many subjects were discussed and talked of by men who made the meetings very interesting. Prof. P. G. Holden of Iowa, the corn expert, gave a most instructive and humorous talk covering nearly two hours in the evening. On Saturday, the 11th, a meeting of the Alfalfa Order of the Experiment association was held in the auditorium of the Agricultural hall, and a surprising thing to me was that this alfalfa order was organized fourteen months ago with only twenty-one members, while today it has nearly 600 members, located all over the state. Alfalfa is the talk of the nation and no subject will draw such large crowds of farmers who are anxious for more knowledge of the habits, ways and needs for successful growing of alfalfa.

As I was one of the five who appeared on the program and gave a talk on the handling and treating of alfalfa lands, I shall gladly send you a copy. Many features were discussed, and all who heard the program took home with them valuable facts and were put on the road to success, when next they attempt to raise alfalfa.

In the afternoon hundreds viewed the greatest display of alfalfa, grains and corn ever held in Madison. The five premium samples of each variety of grains and corn will be put on exhibition at the national corn show at Columbus, S. C., the last of January and the first few days in February. May they be placed at the head of the class at this national show. Without much doubt this is what will happen for Wisconsin has the climate and soil, managed by farmers who know how to tickle the soil that it may bring bumper crops of other state.

In this connection permit me to republish a list of prizes awarded at the Madison show:

Best 10 ears any Yellow Dent corn .....$18.25
Best 10 ears Silver King corn ..... 16.00
Best 10 ears Golden Glow corn ..... 7.75
Best 10 ears any standard, Yellow Dent corn ..... 10.25
Best 50 ears Silver King corn ..... 10.00
Best peck pedigree oats ..... 3.25
Best peck pedigree barley ..... 3.85
Best peck Oederbrucker barley ..... 2.75
Best peck winter wheat ..... 3.50

Let us all unite in boosting Wisconsin in the front rank and keeping her there.

PETER C. SWARTZ.

DANGER FROM INCENDIARY FIRE

Former Lisbon Family Has Frightful Experience Near Chicago

Merton, Jan. 21.—A letter informs relatives here that Mead Mayhew and family of Irving Park, Ill., narrowly escaped a tragic experience Saturday night, Jan. 5. Mrs. Mayhew was up on account of the restlessness of her infant. She heard someone go into the basement of the building, a two-story flat building, and then heard the intruder leave. A moment later flames roared beneath her. The fire department was called at once and extinguished the fire, with small loss. Everything in the basement was saturated with kerosene and a large gas pipe was open. An explosion would have followed soon. The landlord and his son-in-law are under arrest. Nine lives were endangered.

Alvin Fitzgeralds instead of Wilford, received the prize Bible from the Methodist Sunday school. Susie Phrall won third prize, having attended forty-three Sundays.—C. Bearnewall of Sussex visited Merton friends and took in the dance Saturday evening at the Public hall.—Mrs. H. A. Caswell returned home Saturday to pack her trunk. She expects to leave here Thursday en route to Florida, for the remainder of the winter.—The J. Burt Comedy company will give an entertainment at the Public hall Jan. 23-24-25. Admission 10 and 25 cents.—At the R. N. A. card party Friday evening prizes were won as follows: Lady's first, Miss Freida Schneider; second, Miss Clara Schneider; consolation, Mrs. Ernest Beckman. Men's first, Edgar Price; second, Edwin Haass; consolation, Martin Weber.

The M. E. Ladies' Aid society will meet Friday afternoon with Mrs. S. Sleep.—The Embroidery club met on Monday evening with Miss Mae Mahoney.—Monday evening, Jan. 13, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Marquardt welcomed a little daughter.—The Misses Freida and Clara Schneider entertained a company of friends at cards Tuesday evening.—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fuller, Mrs. W. Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Mayhew visited Hartland friends on Tuesday.—Lawrence Molster caught his thumb in a corn shredder and although he had on a mitten, he nearly severed the thumb. Some of the cords were cut so that it is feared the thumb will be stiff.—Mr. and Mrs. C. Fitzgerald entertained a few friends at a five o'clock dinner Sunday in honor of Mr. Fitzgerald's forty-fifth birthday.—The R. N. A. camp installed officers Tuesday evening. A few guests were present. Supper was served.—Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Johnson of Neenah were here this week visiting friends. On Wednesday evening they installed the officers of the local A. B. Y. lodge.

OBSERVE SEVENTY-FIFTH YEAR OF EXISTENCE

Waukesha Congregational Church the First Established in Waukesha

Preparations have been completed for observance of the seventy-fifth anniversary at the services of the Congregational church on next Sunday. At the morning service Dr. Canfield will speak on the subject, "The Christian Church in American History and in Modern Life."

At the evening service the Rev. Dr. Beale of Milwaukee will preach the sermon, and the pastors of the city will bring messages of congratulation. Willard Griswold will give some extracts from the early history of the church. The musical numbers will be an interesting part of the services. The Carroll College Quartette will sing and it is expected that singers of earlier church choirs will be present. Among these guests will be H. S. Hughes of Milwaukee and Orson Olin of Racine and Miss Nora Olin of Chicago.

NOW MILO MUCKLESTON ENTERS THE FIELD

Will Seek Election as Municipal Judge in Eastern District

It will serve as a surprise and will no doubt please numerous people in Waukesha county to learn this week that ex-District Attorney Milo Muckleston has decided to enter the field as a nonpartisan candidate for municipal judge for the eastern district of Waukesha county.

Nomination papers are already being circulated and a vigorous campaign will be waged in Mr. Muckleston's behalf. He made an excellent record in his work as district attorney of Waukesha county, and through his well known activities undoubtedly saved large amounts of money to constituents through persistent efforts in correcting abuses and was responsible for the care of insane and from others legally indebted to the county. In prosecuting criminals he was tireless and won frequent commendation.

The indications are that the approaching judicial campaign will be one of the liveliest and most strenuous yet held in Waukesha county.

DELAFIELD

An impressive military memorial service was held at St. John's chapel Sunday afternoon for Harold Hewit, whose tragic death occurred during the holidays while the cadets were absent. Dr. S. T. Smythe paid a deserved and touching tribute to the deceased and gave a sermon that appealed to the hearts of all who heard it.—Dr. Edwin Hewit's family and Miss Mabel Weber and friend of Oconomowoc came to attend the memorial service.—Rev. A. Glover officiated in the Presbyterian church last Sunday morning, in the absence of the pastor.—Miss Caroline Brewster of Milwaukee is visiting her mother.

GENESEE DEPOT

The entertainment and oyster supper at the Genesee Congregational church Friday evening was attended by a large and appreciative audience. A splendid two course supper was served, after which an interesting program was rendered. The receipts of the evening amounted to $88.—Miss Florence Clausen of Oconomowoc enjoyed Sunday with her sister, Miss Mabel Clausen.—Miss Nellie Marshall of Waukesha was an over Sunday guest of the Mason sisters.—Mrs. John Price has been spending the past six weeks at Barneveld caring for her mother, Mrs. Jones, who has been seriously sick and who died on Thursday.

The following persons attended the funeral of John Burnell at North Prairie Sunday: Messrs. and Mmes. Milton J. Proctor, Charles R. Jones, Evan H. Jenkins, Joseph Gibson and William Gibson, the Misses Mamie and Kathyrine Gerrity, Margaret and Ruth Olliver, Louise and Millia Fintel and Nellie Griffith, Dr. J. H. Sharp and Messrs. Charles R. Mason, James Griffith, James Pronold, H. A. Bowman, T. David Edwards, Arthur Richards, Jos. and Raymond Linehan, C. H. Fintel, David Jones.—Mr. and Mrs. C. Mason are entertaining a cousin, Miss Bessie Lewis, of Oshkosh.

PRES. FRAME AT HEARING OF CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE

One of Those Invited to Present Arguments on Important Question

The following, approved by the undersigned, covers a brief of an argument made by Andrew J. Frame, President of the Waukesha National Bank of Waukesha, Wisconsin, before the Sub-committee on Banking and Currency of the House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., at 10:30 a. m., Jan. 22, 1913:

It is relief in the day of trouble we seek, not an over-dose of monopoly, inflation and over-expansion of credit in normal times.

We respectfully ask your earnest consideration of these conservative essentials, to the end that cash suspensions by banks generally, with their train of evils, may be avoided in the future.

SUBJECT—BANKING AND CURRENCY

To the Congress of the United States, Washington, D. C.

The undersigned, having only the welfare of all the people at heart, beg leave to present herewith for your earnest consideration the following:

Whereas, the dear school of experience proves conclusively that cash suspensions by banks generally, when financial distrust or panic threatens, results in paralysis to trade and commerce, and

Whereas, we all concede the profound necessity to provide some sound remedy therefor, and

Whereas, the complex monetary Commission Bill was presented as a cure, but because of its many objectionable features is not acceptable to the country at large, nor to thousands of bankers, as its provisions become clarified, and

Whereas, the present Congress apparently realizes these facts and is now seeking further light, with a view of presenting a revised bill for passage as a true panacea for our troubles, therefore

We, the undersigned practical bankers, with all due respect to those advocating, with high motives, the passage of the original bill, beg leave to enter this brief, giving our general objections to what appears to us its subtle fallacies, to the end that a new bill, stripped of objections, may be prepared and become the law of the land.

The need for some opportunity to obtain re-discounts when trouble threatens, at fairly high interest rates, and also extra cash to replace cash reserves paid to frightened depositors, temporarily, until confidence is restored, and to the end that loaning to all solvent parties will prevent the wheels of commerce from being stalled, is the paramount solution we seek, but we do seriously object to a great central bank, with many branches, monopolizing general banking functions in normal times; opening the door to greater inflation of our currency, and further opening up easy methods of expanding our already inflated credit. Let us see.

1st. Certain sections of the Bill provide arrogant supervision by the central bank, of banks generally, practically superseding the work of the Comptroller of the Currency, and the State Bank Examiners of the several states. This tends toward monopoly.

2d. The proposition, for one large central bank, with fifteen branches to start on, plus as many more as the directors see fit to establish, spells monopoly, and because they enter so largely into competition with our independent banks, these wings should be clipped for the same reason that Andrew Jackson, in 1836, destroyed the second United States bank with its branches.

3d. As to re-discounts guaranteed through local associations, the proposition as outlined is so impractical, that no bank, except those who ought to be denied the right, would accept its provisions.

As to giving 7,400 national banks the right to expand their credit as now authorized, to the limit of their assets; then loan their credit by accepting customers' time drafts, on them; then permitting those customers to peddle such acceptances in any money market, is entirely unnecessary, and also a dangerous proposition. This is brokerage and not legitimate banking, and should be confined to acceptance or discount houses making it their business, and not to 7,400 banks of deposit.

We assert the arguments, giving experiences abroad as to acceptances, are seriously misleading. The liability of a maker of a note, or an acceptor of a draft, are exactly alike, therefore there is nothing miraculous in the power of an acceptance.

When we find in the Comptroller of the Currency reports for 1912 that the total "Loans and Discounts" including other securities, except United States bonds, of all the banks of the United States, approximate 18,500 millions of dollars, divided about as follows, to-wit:

Millions.
4,500	Real estate loans and mortgages
3,500	Demand and time loans with various collaterals and single or firm paper, unsecured
6,000	Live commercial paper, say

we are led to exclaim; with nearly one-half of the total bank loans in time bonds and mortgages; with nearly one-third in various non-quick liquid assets, and only one-quarter of it, which is promptly cared for, in live commercial paper, including shipments with B-L attached, why should the air be surcharged with plans to manufacture acceptances in order to create a discount market for idle funds? We think the proposition absurd. The only way to create legitimately a larger discount market is to enlarge our internal and external commerce; expand by hook or crook this external commerce, not indirectly as now done largely through London, but through direct shipments to and from the world's ports. When this is accomplished, American international banking will pulsate quickly throughout the world, thus turning trade and profits from London, Paris, Berlin, etc., to American ports; we must also accumulate surplus capital to compete with European low interest rates, so that our live B-L paper does not automatically go abroad. There is no other sound cure. Fictitious manipulation through internal manufactured acceptances simply spells bubble blowing.

If banks have idle funds occasionally, so do individuals and firms, and if those funds burn their pockets to get them out too quickly, then conservatism is set at naught. Further, the barometric signal of abnormally high interest rates, is the whole world's warning that a Titanic pace is on, and the true remedy is to slow down, not press on more steam.

We respectfully serve notice on our reserve city banks, that the moment they enter the field of brokerage through endorsing for customers, our accounts will be transferred to more conservative depositories. Such acceptances are practically foreign to the subject under discussion, to-wit: "Relief in the day of stress." They simply spell piling credit on credit on top of our present monumental pyramid. The beacon lights of past history are strewn with proofs as a warning against such perils. Let us heed them.

4th. The proposition for the central bank to issue 900 millions of un-taxed notes; plus 300 millions additional tax but 1 1/2%, spells inflation. Then comes the true flexibility we seek, to-wit: A tax of 5% on currency issues in excess of 1,200 millions. Herein alone lies expansion of currency and credit under stress, followed by contraction as soon as trouble ceases, all arguments to the contrary not having any warrant in modern experiences. Wildcat currency went home quickly because of distrust in it. To-day our currency stays out as nobody distrusts it, and unless penalized sufficiently to make it unprofitable, does not retire automatically, and that is the crux of our troubles.

5th. As the Bill does not require gold as reserves for liabilities and note issues, this 1,200 millions of notes exceeds the uncovered notes of all Europe combined. New York City will never become the world's financial center unless we hold inviolate gold as our standard for reserves and payments. In view of these facts, we assert, the Bill spells monopoly, inflation and over-expansion of credit. Instead of a panic preventive, these provisions breed panics.

6th. We charge that because of the general urgent need for relief in troubled times, many of those advocating in toto this Bill, desire to destroy the independent banking system of the United States. We deny the oft repeated statement, that other countries do not have bank panics, and respectfully refer those seeking light to standard authorities on banking. Read of Overend-Gurney & Co., and allied failures for 200 millions of dollars in London in 1866—read of the City of Glasgow and other bank failures in 1878, for 100 millions of dollars, the losses thereunder exceeding the total losses to all the depositors in all the national banks in fifty years—read of the failure of Baring Bros., and others in London, in 1890, for over 100 millions of dollars—read the history of failures of half the banks in Australia in 1892-3, for 450 millions of dollars. We pause for an answer.

We plead that if we cannot have a single central bank, with limited powers, to care for us in troubled times, and like unto a water reservoir keep from competition with existing banks in ordinary times, then give us this—

Simple but Effective Remedy
Enlarge the scope of the Aldrich-Vreeland Act, which expires by limitation in 1914, by extending the right to issue uniform elastic currency, not only to national but to state and savings banks; also trust companies doing commercial banking, wherever they are under good state banking laws. The United States Treasury now holds 500 millions of such currency subject to the call of the national banks, on deposit of high-grade state, county, township or municipal bonds, and also through National Currency Association's guarantee of commercial paper, etc. The national banks now hold nearly 200 millions of such bonds. If we include all banks, over 1,200 millions of bonds are now on hand. Therefore, it is easy to command ample bonds on which to obtain this 500 millions of extra currency in days of stress.

With the knowledge that "you got 'em, I want 'em, you no got 'em, I want 'em," the 500 millions is ample to maintain confidence. The work is accomplished directly with the Treasury Department, and therefore the indirect National Currency Association's guarantee method would rarely, if ever, be called into use.

If thought best, as the National Currency Associations require new machinery, substitute therefor the old successful and always ready, non-comparative method of clearing house certificates, but legalize them for use to obtain this extra cash in time of need. These operations are so simple, even a child can grasp them.

Such currency would only come out in abnormal times, as a tax of 5% per annum for the first month is charged, 6% for the second and so on up to 10%. These rates would drive home the extra issues, as soon as pressure ceases, to be ready for future requirements. The cure is effective because it would prevent inflation and over-expansion of credits. The bugbear of cash suspensions by banks generally would then be a nightmare to us no longer.

Then stop further issues of national bank notes and allow them to be reduced by natural evolution through voluntary acts or through banks retiring from business, etc., and by the time the bonds securing bank notes are due most of the currency would be retired automatically and gold sub-

FARMER'S WIFE ALMOST A WRECK

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Her Own Story.

Westwood, Md.—"I am a farmer's wife and do most of my own work when I am able. I had nervous spells, female weakness and terrible bearing down pains every month. I also suffered much with my right side. The pain started in my back and extended around my right side, and the doctor told me it was organic inflammation. I was sick every three weeks and had to stay in bed from two to four days.

"It is with great pleasure I tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I have followed your directions as near as possible, and feel much better than I have felt for years. When I wrote you before I was almost a wreck. You can publish this letter if you like. It may help to strengthen the faith of some poor suffering woman."—Mrs. JOHN F. RICHARDS, Westwood, Maryland.

Women who suffer from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

stituted because under the natural economic law that "rich countries will have all the coin they need, providing no impolitic act of legislation forces it out by the injection of inferior currencies," the vacuum would be filled with the world's standard, and now abundant, gold.

We care not what method is pursued, providing we do not breed monopoly and over-expansion of credit. We need only an elastic measure to prevent cash suspensions, by banks generally. If we cannot stand on our own resources in normal times with the aid of central reserve banks now at our command, we are unworthy weaklings that will never up-build a strong nation. Let us perfect this last link to our strong chain of splendid independent banks; develop by direct methods world-wide trade and banking, and we will continue to strip the world in our wonderful progress.

As the law is not specific, we respectfully recommend that it be nominated in the bond as an amendment to the National Bank Act, to-wit: "Internal branch banks shall not be permitted in the United States. A savings bank or trust company section, or both, under the same or adjoining roof, not to be considered branches."

The states would likely follow and when done, consolidations will be no menace, and our splendid, independent banking system will be a continuing heritage in the future.

Respectfully submitted by your petitioners:

POSTULATES on BANKING AND CURRENCY

1. The pyramid of credit in the United States, and in fact the civilized world, has assumed colossal proportions.
2. High interest rates is the true barometric signal that credit expansion has outrun surplus capital.
3. Conservatism should be our watchword, therefore let us not add fuel to the fires in our Titanic race.
4. Easy methods of inflating currency and credit by the over-buoyant should be penalized to ensure conservatism; more live paper to ensure a broader discount market can only come from an enlarged internal and external commerce.
5. Optimism coupled with conservatism ensures a more permanent progress.
6. Perfection is impossible, even in banking, as long as human error exists and nature is fickle in her gifts to man.
7. The United States has the best and also the most democratic internal banking system in its general functions that the world has ever known, but as to the function of issuing currency, such issues are excessive in quantity and lack that all absorbing quality, penalized flexibility.

8. Issuing currency is not a necessary banking function; banks generally in all progressive nations have been deprived of this special privilege; limited issues are confined to single, central organizations, and penalization of over-issues covers their true flexibility; these central banks with many branches too often spell monopoly in their general functions.

9. Dr. Adam Smith says: "Money, like wine, is always scarce with those who have neither the credit nor wherewithal to buy it." "The cry of all ages is for 'more money.'" "Rich countries will have all the coin they need, providing no impolitic act of legislation forces it out by the injection of inferior currencies." "It is not the province of government to look to the quantity of money in any country, but to the quality, and the needs of commerce will fix the quantity."

10. Prof. Jevons says as to the maxim. "That cheap money (i. e. U. S.) drives out dearer money (coin)." That "many well intentioned people have disbelieved in the Gresham law, to the great cost of states and the perplexity of statesmen who have not studied the principles of monetary science."

11. The Celebrated Bullion Report of 1810 to the British House of Commons says: "In the presence of a panic, it is the duty of the Bank to discount freely to all solvent parties."

Let us recognize the old Kaffir proverb, that "He who will not profit by the experience of the past gets knowledge when trouble overtakes him."

Further, let us not rock the boat too vigorously lest we experience Benjamin Franklin's expression—"I was well, I wanted to be better. I took physic and died."

Finally, let us simply perfect penalized flexibility of currency issues in troubled times, thus adding to the prestige of the best and safest banking system the world has ever known.

RUSH TIME AT THE NATIONAL CAPITAL

Few Remaining Weeks of Taft Administration Crowded With Work

Washington, Jan. 20—Congress might well write on the walls of its legislative chambers the motto: "So much to do, so little done."

Old members of both houses are looking with apprehension at the vast amount of work in the appropriation bills alone, at the same time counting up the working days that remain in which this necessary work may be done. The calendars of both houses are full. There is a great deal of necessary legislation to be considered and passed, and it is a serious problem how Congress will manage to do it all.

The short session, or what remains of it, is going to be jammed full of business, with investigation side-shows making "something doing" every minute.

Appointments
Up to this time there has been no definite agreement among the democrats in the senate about the course to be adopted, with respect to the appointments being sent in by President Taft. Since congress convened the president has made a large number of nominations and very few of them have been confirmed. Will the democrats refuse to allow the president to fill vacancies in order that there may be more "pie" for them? There is a strong disposition to do this, but then it is recognized that there will be a scant working majority in the senate for President Wilson to depend upon when he comes in, and if opposition be provoked the republicans can make no end of trouble after March 4 next.

Perhaps an understanding may be reached soon, and the anxiety of a large number of the president's nominees relieved.

Social Activities
As Lent comes early this year and the session will also close on March 4; the usual social activities of the season are being condensed into smaller space than usual and so there is much greater activity manifested. The White House receptions will all be held this month. The New Year's reception and the reception to the diplomatic corps were both held in the first week of the month. The receptions to the judiciary, the army and navy, and to members of congress are following in rapid succession.

The President and Mrs. Taft have been noted for the enjoyable character of their social entertainments, and those who have been eligible to sit at their table, or to enter their hospitable gates will regret deeply their departure from the White House. In spite of the poor health from which she has suffered much of the time since her husband was elected president, Mrs. Taft has been voted a very successful—almost an ideal hostess, and Mr. Taft's graciousness has become well known proverbial.

An Enthusiast from the South
John Fox of Memphis, who was long identified with the rivers and harbors movement and who recently resigned as a special commissioner for the San Diego exposition to be held in 1915, has been in Washington lately in the interest of the reclamation of swamp lands along the Mississippi. He speaks with much enthusiasm of the work that is being done in San Diego in the building of an exposition.

"President D. C. Collier," said Mr. Fox, "and his able corps of assistants are doing wonders out in San Diego. The exposition has a wonderful site in a great park overlooking the land and sea for many miles. Millions of plants and trees are growing in the exposition nurseries for the ornamentation of the grounds, which will exhibit a high degree of landscape art. The buildings that are rising in the Mission renaissance style to house the exhibits that will form a group with a most beautiful and impressive ensemble. One can see already that the exposition will be a gem, unique in its design and perfect in its plan."

"There can be no question about it; the exposition is bound to be a great revelation to the visitor. Those who go west in 1915 and fail to see the San Diego exposition will make the mistake of their lives."

EARLY EASTER THIS YEAR

If spring is ushered in by Easter day, then spring will be early this year.

Not in ninety-nine years has Easter come any earlier in the year than it will 1913, and it will not come so early again for another eighty-seven years. Easter falls on March 23 this year. Not since 1818 has it arrived so early. In that year it came on March 22. Not until the year 2000 will it come so early again.

Sixty-seven years ago and fifty-six years ago respectively Easter occurred on the same date that it does this year. The next year when Easter will pay an early visit will be in 1940, when it will arrive on March 2. In the year 1815, Easter was on March 26, also in the years 1826, 1833 and 1894.

The latest Easter of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries was in 1859 and in 1905, when it occurred on April 23. Last year it was on April 7.

As Easter is the most important of all the movable feasts of the Christian church, it determines all the rest. Hence this year Ash Wednesday falls on Feb. 5, Ascension Sunday, May 1, and Pentecost, May 11.

Easter can never come earlier than March 2, and the only time it did or could do this from the year 1801 to 2000 was in 1815. This was made possible by reason of the full moon occurring on March 21 and the following day being Sunday. This coincidence does not occur more than once in a century and it is only then that the feast of the Ascension can occur in April and then on April 30.

The rule provides that Easter shall be the Sunday that follows the fourteenth day of the calendar month which falls upon or next after March 21.

INDIGESTION FIVE YEARS

Relieved by Vinol.

Strength and even life itself depends upon the nourishment and proper assimilation of food, and unless digestion is good, the whole body suffers.

Mrs. L. D. Cook, Vineland, N. J., says: "I was sick five years with indigestion. My stomach seemed to have a heavy load in it, and at other times it seemed to be tied in knots. Nobody knows how I suffered.

"I tried a great many doctors and a great many kinds of medicine, but nothing did any good until I took Vinol. It has helped me wonderfully. I am improving fast, feel better and am getting my flesh back again. Vinol has done me a world of good."

We know the great power of Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil, in curing chronic stomach trouble and building up all weakened, run-down persons, and that is why we guarantee to return your money if it does not help you.

"BLOOD IS THICKER THAN WATER"

Without good red blood a man has a weak heart and poor nerves. Thinness of the blood, or anaemia, is common in young folks as well as old. Especially is it the case with those who work in ill ventilated factories—or those who are shut up indoors in winter with a coal stove burning up the oxygen or emitting carbonic dioxide gas. This blood, or blood which lacks the red blood corpuscles, in anaemic people has been caused by lack of good fresh air breathed into lungs, or by poor digestion or dyspepsia. Sometimes people suffer intense pain over the heart which is not heart disease at all, but caused by indigestion. Whatever the cause, there's just one remedy that you can turn to—knowing that it has given satisfaction for over 40 years.

VERNON GIRL—TURTLE AUTO

Miss Gladys Hudson of Vernon, now visiting in Globe, Ariz., had an exciting experience in an auto recently. The Daily Silver Belt of Globe of Jan. 3 gives the following account of the affair:
"While on its way to this city from Roosevelt Tuesday night, Dr. Kennedy's auto went over the bank eight miles this side of Roosevelt, spilling the doctor, Mrs. Kennedy and Miss Gladys Hudson. All received painful though not serious injuries."
"Dr. Kennedy was returning to Globe from the vicinity of Kline where he had been visiting a patient. When about eight miles this side of Roosevelt about 9 o'clock Tuesday evening, a sharp curve was struck and in attempting to make it the rear wheels of the machine overshot the bank, the weight of the auto being on the lower side. For a moment the machine hesitated and then turned turtle. The windshield was up and in turning over prevented the weight of the car from resting on the bodies of the occupants. In its first somersault Mrs. Kennedy and Miss Hudson were thrown out and the car started on its second somersault with Dr. Kennedy at the wheel, from which he did not have an opportunity to remove himself. The windshield having broken on the first turn, allowed the full weight of the auto to fall upon Dr. Kennedy as it made its second somersault. The doctor received the weight of the machine on his shoulders and chest. The machine righted itself on the second turn and wound up at the bottom of the canon right side up and with its lights burning."
"Mrs. Kennedy suffered severe bruises and Miss Hudson received a bruised shoulder."

Water-town pressed brick will be used in the construction of the new building.
The wild geese didn't seek the orange bowers at the usual time this year but remained north to celebrate the holiday season. S. E. Hansen reports seeing a large flock of about 100 geese moving southward on New Year's day. They probably scented the blizzard which followed a few days later. Wild geese are rarely seen here as late as this.

They will start within a week or so and will work during favorable weather this winter, in order to complete it as early as possible, as this company has a $30,000 contract at the Valentine place, Oconomowoc lake, to start in the spring. Water-town pressed brick will be used in the construction of the new building.
The wild geese didn't seek the orange bowers at the usual time this year but remained north to celebrate the holiday season. S. E. Hansen reports seeing a large flock of about 100 geese moving southward on New Year's day. They probably scented the blizzard which followed a few days later. Wild geese are rarely seen here as late as this.

Index:—Twelve wild turkeys shipped from Susquehanna, Pa., to Col. Gustav Pabst arrived here Wednesday and were taken to his Silver Lake farm.
William Wynoski went to Sussex last week to visit his daughter, Mrs. Meike. While there he became ill and has consequently been unable to return. The last word from Sussex was that he was gaining.

Mrs. J. G. Williams accompanied her father to Waukesha Tuesday where he visited until Thursday. Then he intended to start for Mobile, Ala., to spend the winter with his son.

Frank Bradley arrived here from San Francisco Monday night. He is visiting his aunt, Mrs. M. A. Hardell, in this village this week and will spend the remainder of the winter here and at Eagle.

Sylvester and Catherine Bennett, Ray, Anna and Marie Lenehan from Genesee and the Misses Hughes from Waukesha were guests in the J. E. Conroy home recently. They came to attend the dance.

On Saturday, Jan. 11, G. A. Gropp passed the 75th milestone and in the evening about twenty friends gathered at his home in Utica to assist him to properly celebrate the event. Of course all had a good time. Mr. Gropp carries his years very lightly.

The Fox Ice company began the season's ice cut on Utica lake. The soft weather of the middle of the week, however, compelled a halt in the operations and work will be suspended until colder weather sets in again.

News:—As has been previously announced, Walworth county has been organized for Y. M. C. A. work during the present year, being the first county in the state where an organization has been perfected and undertaken. About $2,000 has been pledged to carry on the work and if the plan is a success other counties in the state will be organized and under the leadership of local parties will meet regularly. A boys' scout movement is planned and other things that will interest the boys providing for gatherings for their moral and physical welfare. H. Hungerford will be the county secretary and his headquarters will be at Elkhorn.

W. H. Chapman, Winnebago, Neb., tells how he did it. "My two children had a very bad cough and the doctor's medicine did them no good. I got a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and before it was used the children were free and cured of their cough. I saved a doctor's bill for one 25c bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound." A mean stuffy cold, with hoarse wheezy breathing is just the kind that runs into bronchitis or pneumonia. Don't trifle with such serious conditions but take Foley's Honey and Tar Compound promptly. Bartlett was in town for a few hours Friday.—John Howitt continues to improve and is now thought to be out of danger.

Arrangements are in progress for a dancing party to be given by the Masons and Eastern Star at the Athenaeum Wednesday evening, Jan. 29. Music will be furnished by Hatch's orchestra of Janesville. The hall will be decorated and no pains spared to make it a pleasurable event. Invitations will be issued and only those presenting cards will be admitted.—The masquerade ball at the Athenaeum Friday evening presented many pleasing and some grotesque costumes. First prize for lady's artistic costume was awarded Mrs. Arthur Ward who wore white decorated with sweet peas. Gentleman's prize went to Howard Hanson of Hartland.

A party of young people gathered at the Christofferson home Friday evening in honor of the twenty-first birthday of the youngest daughter, Miss Ruth. Those present from out of town were Misses Myrtle Fowler, Milwaukee; Lily Jorgensen, Stone Bank; Lucinda Badger, Hartland; Mildred Pynn, Nashotah; Messrs. Omaha Youells, Hartland, John Stoney, Avalon. Refreshments were served and the evening passed in games and general sociability. Miss Ruth was the pleased recipient of an elegant gold watch from her parents.

Perkins will entertain the "Once-a-Week's" Wednesday evening.—Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schwartz entertained a few intimate friends Tuesday evening, their fourth wedding anniversary.

LISBON

On Thursday last Sheriff Gibson took Charles Schultz to Waukesha, where he was arraigned before Judge Agnew. The town authorities complained that Mr. Schultz had become so feeble that it was not wise to let him live alone. On investigation the court sent him to the county farm. Mr. Schultz came to Lisbon about thirty-five years ago and bought a farm on section 17 where he has since resided. He is reported to be well to do but could not keep tenants on his farm to look after his welfare and in his feeble condition the town board thought it their duty to see that he was well cared for in his declining years. There will undoubtedly be a guardian appointed.

Charles Christains has moved back to Lisbon and will work the farm he sold and left a year or two ago.—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Sussex State bank at the bank last week Wednesday, the directors were re-elected. The report read showed that the bank has grown far beyond the expectations of the promoters and that there was a net gain of nearly 66 per cent on the capital stock, which is very encouraging for the first year, together with $60,000 deposits. It was the wish of the meeting that the board build a new bank building in the coming year if, in their judgment, a suitable site can be secured.

The directors of the Lisbon Mutual Fire Insurance company met Tuesday afternoon and elected the following officers: John Tempero, president; J. R. Small, secretary; W. W. Brown, treasurer.—Miss Myrtle Craven returned home Saturday. It is reported she stood the trip well and is doing nicely.—Allen Russell has been suffering from a sprained ankle the past week.—Next Sunday evening Rev. Kafer of the M. E. church will give a special sermon on "The Problem of the Country and the City." This is surely an up to date subject and ought to be worth going to hear.

The E. W. society will meet Saturday afternoon with Miss Myra Harmon in Lannon.—W. C. Howard, while drawing fuel from the swamp had a large horse break through the ice and break its leg, which necessitated killing the animal. Mr. Howard would rather have lost $300 as the horse was one of the best.—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. ## GREELEY & MONTGOMERY number from here attended the funeral of Jesse Shears of Monterey.

DODGES CORNERS

Mrs. John Young spent the latter part of the week with her sister, Mrs. Wentler, of Honey Creek.—Mrs. Weideman enjoyed a post card shower and a party on the occasion of her birthday, last week.—Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Dewey entertained at dinner Thursday Messrs. and Mmes. William Searl, Everett Martin, Frank Bartholomew and A. N. Hollister.—Una Bartholomew was obliged to close school last week because of a severe cold. Irene Clark starts school again this week after losing two weeks.—F. C. Smith and son, Donald, had colds or the grip the first of last week. Mr. Sargeant's friends are glad that he is gaining, even if it be very slowly.—Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Garrison of Columbus, O., who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Kelly, returned home last week.—Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Latham of School Section, Mukwonago, spent Sunday in this neighborhood.—John A. Young visited the auto show several days last week.

BIG BEND

Dr. Walch, John Sanders, Blanche Clark and Julia Jackson were called to Vernon Monday to sing at the funeral of Mrs. Minnie Keppen. Mrs. Keppen made her first home in Big Bend when she arrived from Germany about thirty-five years ago. Her death has caused sorrow to many friends.—The last lecture of the course of the Chicago bureau was given Tuesday night. At the entertainment by the Vocal and Brass Quartet on the night of Jan. 4, the files were removed from one side of the stage to make room for the crowd. All have seemed pleased with the entertainments and there is a good surplus in the treasury.

James Vess, who has been very sick with pleurisy and pneumonia, is convalescing.—Elder Moody is holding a series of meetings at Caldwell.—The brothers and sisters of Mrs. Tomely aided her in observing her birthday anniversary.—Mr. Cruse has moved from the farm of Isaac McKenna to the tenant house of Mrs. Minda Jackson.

PROSPECT

Miss Hazel Vanderpool returned from Whitewater Friday night, accompanied by three schoolmates, Adell Gafney, Margaret Lyons and Beulah Silvernale. She gave a party Saturday evening to which a dozen of the young people of the neighborhood were invited. Music, readings and games were enjoyed and elegant refreshments were served. The pleasure of the evening was somewhat marred by Miss Gafney receiving a telegram announcing the serious illness of her father at Madison. Mr. Vanderpool took her to the early morning train at Waukesha.—Miss Myra Foster and the McNeil Bros. attended the auto show in Milwaukee.—Mrs. Ellen Thomson of Milwaukee is a guest of her brother, John McKoen, this week.—Roy E. Vanderpool of Chicago spent Sunday with his father, E. E. Vanderpool.

The committee elected to build the new school house have bargained for the acre lot owned by L. S. Winton, on what is known as the Avenue, next to Mrs. Tillson's. They expect to begin hauling material as soon as possible. Chris Emperor has donated all the stone necessary.—Friends of Frank Young will be sorry to learn of his death, which occurred in Milwaukee early last week. He leaves a wife and three daughters. Funeral was held Jan. 11, with burial in New Berlin Center cemetery.—George Luber Don Gross and Henry Beiss, who have been taking milk to the Oakdale factory, to be sent to Chicago, got notice recently to stop delivering it as the factory owners contemplate erecting a new building on the old site and cannot use so much milk now. The parties have made arrangements to take their milk to the Harris factory at Waukesha.

GENESE

Thomas H. Jones, aged 86 years and Thomas M. Jones, aged 78, are both quite sick.—Our people are making preparation for the farmers' institute to be held here next month.—We are signing nominating papers these days and we are happy to say the candidates are all good men.—Most of our people are well supplied with fire wood which will be sawed up by Mr. Bohman in a short time.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by all Druggists, 75c.
