Lucretia S. Pratt

On Thursday, Dec. 16, occurred the death of Lucretia S. Pratt in the town of Pewaukee, where she was taken to a hospital for treatment. Mrs. Pratt was a daughter of the late John V. and Juliet Sprague Ely and was born in Joliet, Ill., Dec. 4, 1854. She came to Wisconsin with her parents and located on the farm now occupied by Frank Breidenbach which was the family home until about two years ago. She married Joseph Pratt of Lake Beulah by whom she had three children, George Franklin, Chester Arthur and Mae, now Mrs. Fred Wambold, who with one brother, Edward B., survive her. The funeral was held from the M. E. church Monday afternoon, Rev. W. J. Perry officiating. Interment was in the family lot at Jericho.

Mrs. Pratt spent nearly all of her life in and around Eagle and was engaged in farming until a few years ago when she exchanged her farm for a fine home in the village, owned by Anton Kalb. She was a good woman and leaves many friends to mourn her death.
