FIND DANCE HALL "SHEIK" GUILTY

MILWAUKEE — Edward Van Drese, "vulture" of Milwaukee's dance halls, was found guilty yesterday of attacking a 16-year-old girl. The verdict was returned after less than an hour's deliberation by a jury of four women and eight men.

Van Drese and his companion, Joseph Fless, were arrested on the complaint of several young girls who told how they had been lured from the dance hall to a country road where the attacks occurred.

The girls' stories were given wide publicity and a vice cleanup campaign immediately was instituted by city officials that already has resulted in the arrest of nearly a dozen young men and has brought about enforcement of an old 10 o'clock curfew law for dance hall frequenters under 18 years of age.

Van Drese will be brought to trial again immediately on the complaint of another girl, prosecuting attorneys said, and Fless will come into court as soon as the cases against Van Drese have been concluded.

ASSOCIATION OF MILKMEN WINS

MADISON, Wis.—Recognition of the Pure Milk association, which includes Wisconsin, Illinois and Indiana dairy farmers, by the buyers and distributors is the greatest victory for co-operative marketing in its history, D. M. Geyer, field manager of the association, said here Monday.

The price of $2.65 per hundred fixed in the settlement of the Chicago milk strike is not the important part of the peace pact with dealers, Geyer said. The agreement of the Chicago distributors that they will not accept milk from any producer unless he is a member of the association is most satisfactory part of it, he explained.

FAIRNESS IS KOHLER PLEDGE

STATE NEEDS NEW INTERESTS IN INDUSTRY

MILWAUKEE — (U.P.) — Fairness to industry with the object of increasing general prosperity in the state was pledged by Gov. Walter J. Kohler last night in an address to more than 700 members of the Milwaukee Association of Commerce.

Gov. Kohler declared that the state has suffered great losses through lack of interest in new and established industries. He urged that special inducements be offered to progressive organizations to locate factories in Wisconsin.

"One of the major problems of the present administration is to dispell the impression that the state government is unfriendly to industry," Gov. Kohler said. "In communities where industry flourishes the farmer also is prosperous because he has nearby markets for his produce."

Although taxes in general must be raised to meet the growing expense of government there will be no discrimination against any group or class, he said.

Dr. Gus W. Dyer, professor of political economy at Vanderbilt University and editor of the Southern Agriculturist, said the selection of Gov. Kohler on a "business in government" platform was one of the greatest political achievements of modern times.

In late years a movement has started among industries, Dyer said, to move their plants from cities to small towns and rural communities. It naturally follows, he pointed out, that Wisconsin offers a likely field for such locations.

Other speakers were Oscar F. Stotzer, re-elected president of the association, and Harry J. Bell, executive director.

ALIMONY UNPAID; HUSBAND JAILED

Emil Huebner, 24, who on Dec. 14, 1928 was fined $25 and costs when found guilty of committing an assault upon his wife who began action for divorce, was committed to the county jail Monday in default to pay temporary alimony and attorney fees amounting to $150. It is also charged he violated the court's restraining order for the second time, entering his wife's home last week in an intoxicated condition. He will remain in jail until the alimony and fees are paid.

Mrs. Huebner has recently begun suit against her husband, charging him with cruel and inhuman treatment growing out of non-support. Mr. Huebner has taken a defiant attitude toward the court action.

TEWS ON STATE COMMITTEE

OUTLINE WORK FOR TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION

MADISON, Wis.—(UP)—Announcement of appointments to the Teacher Training Council and the Committee on Protection of Schools against Propaganda was made today by M. C. Palmer, Columbus, president of the Wisconsin Teachers' association.

Those appointed to the Teachers Training Council are: H. W. Kircher, Sheboygan, city superintendent; D. T. John, Kenosha, junior high school principal; O. F. Nixon, Green Bay, senior high school principal; H. C. Thayer, Madison, vocational schools; Angus Rothwell, Wausau, elementary principal; Arthur Tews, Waukesha, county superintendent; Merle Palmer, Columbus, county rural normal school principal; Ruth McDill, Milwaukee, classroom teacher; and H. W. Wriston, Appleton, private college.

These members are in addition to four others, with whom they will meet here Saturday morning to organize for their work. The other members are O. H. Plenzke, assistant state superintendent; E. G. Doudna, secretary of the state board of normal school regents; B. E. McCormick, secretary of the Wisconsin Teachers Association; and C. J. Anderson, director of the School of Education of the University of Wisconsin.

The committee on protection of schools against propaganda will be composed of C. E. Hulten, Marinette city superintendent, chairman; Joanna Hannan, Milwaukee, elementary teacher; and Frank Younger, Appleton, elementary school principal.

This committee also will meet here Saturday morning to organize and outline its work for the year.

Each group will continue its work and study throughout the year and will report at the general meeting of the association next November.

The committees were appointed, Palmer announced, in accord with resolutions passed at the association meeting held last Nov. 8.

The purpose of the larger body will be to determine just what should constitute teacher training work; and that of the committee on propaganda will be to determine just what constitutes and what does not constitute religious, political or commercial propaganda in the schools.

VON HUENEFELD, AVIATOR, DIES

FIRST TO CROSS SEA IN WESTWARD FLIGHT

BERLIN—(UP)—Less than a year after his hazardous westward crossing of the Atlantic with two companions, Baron Gunther von Huenefeld died in a Berlin hospital last night after a third operation for stomach disorder had proved successful.

Von Huenefeld was a monarchist and a close friend of the former crown prince of Germany. After the revolution, he accompanied the crown prince into exile.

Slender, stern-faced and always wearing a monocle, he was not the characteristic aviator. Printing, poetry and playwriting were his hobbies until he developed a sudden interest in aviation.

The baron accompanied Capt. Hermann Koehl, German navigator, and Capt. James Fitzmaurice, Irish pilot, on the westward flight from Dublin, which he financed. Their plane, the Bremen, was forced down at Greenly island, April 13, 1928.

During the long hours over the Atlantic the baron wrote poetry which he recited to the two men who operated the plane. The poet and his composure in writing them, kept Koehl and Fitzmaurice cheerful.

MRS. HANNAH LEE CAINE SUCCUMBS

(By Marion J. Tempero)
LISBON — Mrs. Hannah Lee Caine, widow of the late Thomas G. Caine, for many years resident of Lisbon and later of Oshkosh, passed away Wednesday, Jan. 30, after a long illness, aged 89 years. Mrs. Caine's death occurred at the home of Stanley Jeffrey, 119 Baxter st., where she had resided for the past two years since the death of her husband. Mrs. Caine was the youngest of the family of six children of Mrs. Rachel Lee Graves, who with her family came to Lisbon from England in 1843. Mr. Graves was a resident of Lisbon and of the homestead he took up here for fifty years, passing away in the fall of 1893. Mrs. Graves outlived her husband by two years. They are buried in Rose Hill cemetery which was a part of the Graves' homestead. Miss Hannah Lee was married to Thomas G. Caine about 33 years ago, and they made their home in Oshkosh for about twelve years.

Following their residence there they went to southern California, making their home at Blythe for a number of years on a fruit ranch. Failing health caused them to return to Oshkosh some years ago, where they remained until Mr. Caine's illness, became so critical he was brought to the Spa in Waukesha. Following his death nearly two years ago, Mrs. Caine fell fracturing her hip, and had ever since then been confined to her bed and chair. Three stepchildren, Dr. Allen B. Caine, of Marion, Ind.; Mrs. Evelyn Williams, of New York City, and George Caine, of Madison; a number of nephews and nieces here and in western states survive. Funeral services were held at the Gaspar funeral home, Saturday, at 1:30 p. m., Rev. C. W. Heywood officiating. ## TO HAVE FARM BILL PREPARED

MEMBERS-ELECT TO TAKE PART IN HEARINGS

WASHINGTON — (U. P.) — A new farm relief program, embodying President-elect Hoover's ideas, probably will be drafted by the house agriculture committee between March 4 and the time an extra session of congress convenes probably April 15.

The United Press learned that authoritatively today from house leaders who are preparing to pass legislation so members-elect who will be appointed to the agriculture committee can sit officially in hearings to be held for drafting the bill.

Hoover is expected to detail his farm relief suggestions in his special message to the extra session and the views will be given in advance to members drawing the bill so that the measure can be ready for presentation as soon as congress convenes.

Majority Leader Tilson said the house is so well versed on the agriculture situation that a farm relief bill could be passed in one week to ten days. They said there would be no fight on the controversial equalization fee this year as "that is a dead issue."

The ways and means committee will conclude its hearings on tariff revision this month and a new tariff act will be drafted during March. House members-elect who will be appointed to that committee have been given authority to assist in drafting the new measure.

Tilson said the house would enact the tariff law after about three to four weeks debate and then adjourn for three day periods while the senate was acting on the legislation.

HOOVER WILL LEAVE ON WEEK'S TOUR

MIAMI BEACH, Fla.—President-elect Hoover will leave on a yacht Saturday night to be gone a week, combining his visit to Thomas A. Edison at Fort Meyers, a west coast tarpon fishing expedition and his survey of the Lake Okeechobee flood district into one trip.

Mr. Hoover plans to leave Fort Myers late Monday, re-embark on the yacht, and fish for tarpon along the west coast, probably at Shark river. He will leave there in time to begin his survey of the Okeechobee district Friday, returning here Saturday night.

COOLEY OUT OF FARM BUREAU

TO CONSIDER OTHER CONNECTIONS HE SAYS

O. H. Cooley, secretary of the Waukesha County Farm bureau for the past seven years, may not resume his position with the organization following the recovery from an operation performed in December, he announced Thursday. It will require several weeks yet, he said, before he will be able to again be active in business. In the meantime he will consider other connections, he said. The new proposals are all of a local nature and will not take him away from Waukesha.

At a board of directors meeting of the Bureau Wednesday a report of business activities for the year 1928 was read, which showed that the farm bureau has enjoyed the biggest year in its history. Following the meeting the directors visited Mr. Cooley who is confined to his home.

During the past seven years Mr. Cooley has been very active as the Bureau secretary and is widely recognized in that position.

H. S. Snow is secretary pro tem of the Bureau during the absence of Mr. Cooley. He has been the Farm Bureau accountant for more than a year.

A change in policy of the Bureau does not permit that the annual financial report be made public as heretofore, it was stated today. The business transacted by the Bureau will be held in confidence among Bureau members, it was said.

ROSENWALD IS BEHIND JOHN D.

SEARS-ROEBUCK HEAD WRITES TO STOCKHOLDERS

CHICAGO — (UP) — Julius Rosenwald, millionaire head of the Sears-Roebuck corporation, announced today that he was exerting his influence to aid John D. Rockefeller Jr., in his attempt to oust Colonel Robert W. Stewart from the chairmanship of the board of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana.

Rosenwald said he was not a stockholder in the Indiana Standard company but admitted he had written personal letters to several large stockholders urging them to give their proxies to Rockefeller Jr.

"I said in these letters that it was fitting for stockholders in any enterprise to see that the business is managed by officers whom they could trust," Rosenwald said.

Stewart supporters, however, refused to be impressed by Rosenwald's announcement and declared the "Colonel" was assured of victory not only by a majority of the 58,000 stockholders, but by a majority of the 6,000,000 votes the shareholders will cast.

There are more than 9,250,000 shares available for voting at the annual stockholders meeting March 7. Stewart leaders however estimated that at least 3,000,000 shares will be held in the "neutral" column and not voted.

STEWART BEGINS ROUND OF CONFERENCES

NEW YORK — (UP) — Directing his battle to prevent John D. Rockefeller, Jr., from unseating him as chairman of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, Colonel Robert W. Stewart began a round of conferences here today.

In addition to meeting his attorneys and advisers, it was learned, Stewart planned to confer with several large stockholders.

Standard of Indiana stock was not recorded on curb tickers yesterday until after 1 p. m. when it finally appeared, the opening price was $100.25, a rise of $4.25. After a further rise to 102, it closed at $99.4, a net gain of 3%. Heavy odd-lot orders delayed the opening transaction.

FOUR ARE HURT AT CROSSING

AUTO STRUCK BY TRAIN ON ARCADIAN AVENUE.

Mrs. Al Leitner, 25, is in serious condition at Municipal hospital and Harry Haberlind, 934 Oakland Ave., sustained a broken left leg as the result of an automobile-train crash on the Soo line crossing at Arcadian Ave., about 10:20 p. m. Saturday. Mr. Leitner and son Robert miraculously escaped with minor injuries.

Mrs. Leitner, according to hospital authorities, sustained a possible skull and right leg fracture. She was resting easily Monday.

Passenger No. 2, southbound, struck the machine which was going east. Conductor George Whitely, Stevens Point, and Engineer Fuller, Fond du Lac, aided the victims.

Reports are that no watchman was stationed at the crossing at the time of the crash. Haberlind, the driver, noticed the train too late to stop his machine and it skidded onto the tracks in the path of the fast passenger train.

Milwaukeeans on their way to visit here, were injured near Elm Grove Sunday when their automobile turned over, injuring Misses Margaret Juedas and Edythe Hamilton and Mrs. Gust Sperl. Other occupants of the car were shaken.

Mrs. Sperl was taken to a nearby farm house. She suffered from shock. The two young women received cuts on their legs. Gust Sperl was driving the car. Other occupants were Anna and Henry Sperl.

John Mair, 18, was taken to Municipal hospital late Saturday night having sustained a broken leg while attending a dance at Mukwonago.

STATE HONORS 5 FOR WORK IN AGRICULTURE

ONE TO RECEIVE RECOGNITION IS WOMAN SUPERINTEND- ENT OF SCHOOLS

MADISON, Wis. —(UP)— The names of five persons were added today to the list of 73 to whom the University of Wisconsin formerly had given special recognition for distinguished to agriculture.

One of the persons to whom the recognition was given is master of the national grange, another is a rural school leader and three are outstanding farmers in Wisconsin.

They are Louis John Taber, Columbus, Ohio, master of the national grange; Lucy Agnes Leonard, Shell Lake, county superintendent of schools in Washburn county; James W. Hutchinson, Randolph; William J. Hansche, Racine; and Sylvester C. Cushman, Wycocena.

In making these awards at the general session of the Farm Folks Week program here last night the state university followed a custom established in 1908 and carried on from year to year since that time.

Such outstanding agricultural leaders have been chosen each year that the honor of being selected for recognition has come to be a high one and a farmer who attains the distinction is considered entitled to a place among the truly great.

The idea, since adopted by almost a dozen agricultural schools in the United States, did not gain immediate favor when it first was suggested by Gov. W. D. Hoard and Dean H. L. Russell in 1906 and it was not ratified by the University Board of Regents until in December, 1908, two years later.

Inasmuch as academic training plays no part in selection of the men and women thus honored, the giving of this recognition at first was considered such a radical departure from educational traditions that it failed for a while to attract the attention it since has drawn.

"It is thought that recognition of service on this broad basis will elevate the practical, and not lower the more intellectual efforts of man," Dean Russell declared in his arguments to overcome the early indifference toward the custom.

The recognition in fact constitutes a special degree from the university, a degree granted the practical "dirt farmer" and the "good home maker," whose success and example stimulate others to improve home life. During the twenty years the custom has been followed the names of eminent editors, farmers, gardeners, inventors, teacher and organizers have been added to the list.

Hansche, one of those recognized this year, won his fame as a truck gardener whose ability was evident in the market place as well as on the farm. He cooperated with the University's College of Agriculture in developing a strain of cabbages that resist plant diseases.

Although the Racine man's experiments in this field are not yet completed and a strain has not yet been developed which is highly resistant to disease and at the same time able to maintain the original type 100 percent, his work has been of inestimable value to farmers in the mid-west and he is a likely candidate for similar honors from other schools.

It has been customary to give recognition to one national leader each year, in addition to the four Wisconsin persons honored. Henry Wallace, Des Moines, Ia., editor of Wallace' Farmer, was the first man thus recognized.

Taber, this year's selection for the degree, was a member of President Coolidge's agricultural commission in 1924. He has been especially active in solving problems in group action during his term as leader of the national grange. He formerly was lecturer of the Ohio State Grange and during the time he was an officer of that organization its membership grew from 40,000 to 102,000.

Miss Leonard, the only woman honored at the recognition service led the movement for naming of all schools after patriotic leaders during the World war. She is a native of New York, but has spent practically all her life in this state. She was educated at Shell Lake and in the Superior Normal and has taught in rural, grade and high schools of this state. Development of Boys and Girls club work has been her principal contribution to rural home life of Wisconsin and was the work through which she gained recognition.

Hutchinson has been a leader in bringing about introduction of pure bred Holstein cattle to central Wisconsin and he had influenced many farmers to discard their common herds for registered cattle. It has been said of him that "he demonstrated that a farmer can go in debt and by hard work pay for his farm and improve it."

Cushman is superintendent of the Columbia County Asylum Farm at Wycocena. During his 19 years at this post, the farm has become a model of the immediate rural community. At the same time he was improving the farm, he was active in interesting farmers of his county in raising of alfalfa, betterment of their dairy herds and improvement of their farms in general.

Numerous group meetings were held today in connection with the general Farm Week program and lectures of interest were given by persons of state and national prominence. Interest tomorrow will center about the dairymen's meeting at which topics related to the recent milk strike will be discussed.

Milwaukee — Plans for construction of a new gas holder at Racine to cost $200,000 were announced here today by D. E. Calender, vice president of the Wisconsin Gas and Electric company. The holder, of 3,000,000 cubic foot capacity, will serve Racine and nearby communities.

THREATENED BY HUBBY, CLAIM

ALLEGED IN SUIT ATTEMPT WAS MADE TO BURN HER

Three divorces were granted today by Judge C. M. Davison, in Circuit court. Other cases are pending before the court for grants.

A divorce complaint was filed in Circuit court yesterday by Edgar Barnett against his wife, Clara. They were married in Waukegan, Oct. 12, 1912. One child is affected by the action. Cruel and inhuman treatment are the charges. Anna Greiten received a decree on grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment from her husband, John B. Greiten, owner of a cottage and soft drink parlor in Okauchee. The two were married in Cudahy, June 15, 1910.

Because her husband soaked her with kerosene and attempted to kill her, Anna Ackerman, Lannon, received a divorce from Lawrence Ackerman upon grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment. The two have property valued at $7,000, according to the plaintiff.

In a counter suit the defendant alleges that his wife insisted that Robert Manske live and board with them and that she has been seeking Manske's company. Mrs. Ackerman, he stated, professed love for the boarder. He also denies he has property valued at more than $2,500. The plaintiff asked that her name before marriage, Anna Gossfeld, be restored.

Reconciliation Fails

Helen Thompson, 25, of Milwaukee, was granted a decree upon grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment. Arthur Thompson, 23, her husband, is a payroll clerk. Bonds, valued at $2,000 are to be divided between the two equally.

The court attempted to effect a reconciliation between the two, but the attempts failed. Both said the feeling that they could not live with each other was mutual.

LINDBERGH ON LAST OF TRIP

TAKES OFF FOR CRISTOBAL EARLY THIS AFTERNOON

DAVID, Panama—(UP)— After a brief stop here, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh left here at 1:40 p. m.

today on the last section of his southbound air mail flight to Cristobal, Panama, canal zone.

From this city to Cristobal, Lindbergh will fly in a northeasterly direction. The distance is about 200 miles.

Lindbergh and his two companions landed at Punta Arenas earlier in the lay and remained only a short time while their Sikorsky amphibian was refueled. The distance to David is approximately 180 miles and they expected to make it in about two hours.

It was Lindbergh's second visit to Costa Rica, as he had stopped at San Jose, the capital, on his good will tour last January.

His arrival today caused tremendous excitement here. Ships in the harbor were decorated in his honor and excited crowds boarded launches to watch him land. He was officially welcomed by Costa Rican authorities, the American minister, and leading citizens who journeyed from the capital for the occasion.

Lindbergh responded to the cordial expressions of good will by expressing his pleasure at being able to revisit Costa Rica.

In an interview with the United Press, Lindbergh said the Pan-American Airways company expects to inaugurate daily mail and passenger service between Miami and the canal zone within a year. The service will be a great help to American commercial expansion, he said.

CARROLL BEGINS SECOND SEMESTER

Carroll college began its second semester of college work today. Examinations were completed Friday and work of the first semester closed. Registrations for the second semester were also completed last week.

The enrollment remains about the same for the new college period, B. A. Ganfield, manager, stated. Silas Bylow is the only student who completed his senior work during the first semester. He will graduate with the full class in June. A few new students have enrolled, some of them having completed their high school course recently.

HOSPITAL PLAN BEFORE CITY FEBRUARY 14

FORM LEASE PLACED IN COUNCIL'S HANDS BY E. R. ESTBERG LAST NIGHT

A special meeting of the city council, that will meet as a committee of the whole, will be held Thursday, Feb. 14, to consider entering into an agreement with the Waukesha Hospital Building corporation to pay 3 per cent interest on an amount not to exceed $250,000 for the erection of a modern 75-bed hospital here.

A form of lease which the hospital company hopes to enter into with the city, was presented to the city council Tuesday night, accompanying an explanation by E. R. Estberg, president of the corporation. Terms of the lease were not read but a copy will be sent to each councilman so that by Feb. 14 all will have a clear understanding of the terms it embodies.

Unless this agreement is entered into by Mar. 1, Mr. Estberg said, the stock subscription will become invalid, according to the terms set for on the stock certificates.

Asks Opinion

The lease as presented was referred by the council body to the city attorney, with requests that a written opinion be rendered as to the legality or illegality of a contract such as this between a corporation and the city.

According to the terms, the lessee—the city of Waukesha—agrees to pay a rate of 3 per cent on the capital investment of the corporation, not to exceed $250,000, also to pay all taxes accruing on property and income. The city is liable for all administrative costs not to exceed $500 per year and in addition becomes responsible for repair and upkeep on the building.

The corporation, it is provided, will present an account of the investment. This account may be audited by a firm agreeable to both parties. If an agreement is not reached, a firm will be chosen by the county judge.

LADIES' NIGHT WILL OCCUR THURSDAY, FEB. 14

One of the events that Kiwanians always look forward to with real delight is that on which they are permitted to invite their wives or the prospective wives to sit with them at the banquet board. This time the date will be Thursday evening, Feb. 14. That is certainly a date no member of the local club will forget. It will probably be a hundred per cent meet.
