Ella Wiedenhoeft

The funeral of Mrs. Charles Wiedenhoeft, Sr., who died at the elderly home, 418-23d avenue, Milwaukee, January 6th, took place at the Voth and Anderson funeral parlors, January 8th, Rev. Newing of the M. E. church officiating. Interment was in Wanderers' Rest Cemetery. Mrs. Wiedenhoeft's maiden name was Ella E. McLaughlin and she was born in Cleveland, Ohio, March 1, 1857. She was married to Charles Wiedenhoeft, Sr., Nov. 12, 1877, and remained in Eagle many years on the farm now occupied by her son, Charles Wiedenhoeft, Jr. She was a member of the M. E. church for many years. She leaves surviving her besides her husband, one son, Charles, Jr., of Eagle, and three daughters, Mrs. J. H. Wolfe, Waukesha; Mrs. J. J. Wagner, Chicago, and Mrs. F. H. Walthers, of Milwaukee, who have our sincere sympathy in the loss sustained by the death of their beloved wife and mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wiedenhoeft, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. St and H. W. Stubbs attended the funeral of Mrs. Charles Wiedenhoeft, Sr., in Milwaukee.
