GEORGE WALLACE ALVORD

On Monday at the home of Belle Proctor, 149 Wisconsin Ave., Waukesha, occurred the death of George Wallace Alvord, aged over eighty years. He leaves besides his widow, one son, Roy M., of Jewell, Kansas, and one daughter, Mrs. Earl Eychner, Fort Collins, Colorado.

Mr. Alvord was a resident of Eagle for many years, owning the farm now occupied by Ed. Thurloff, until his removal to Kansas. Of recent years Mr. Alvord spent much of his time at Eagle and Waukesha. He was a Civil war veteran, and held many offices of trust here.

The funeral was held at Waukesha, Thursday, at two o'clock, under the auspices of Robert Morris lodge, of Eagle, and interment was in North Prairie cemetery. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved family.
