FUNERAL OF LESLIE LIDICKER

Another war hero was laid to rest on American soil when the remains of Private Leslie C. Lidicker were returned and given a military burial at Delafield, Oct. 23, 1921. Services were held at St. John's Military academy, in front of the chapel, and were conducted by Dr. Sydney T. Smythe, assisted by Rev. McDonald. Capt. Alberts of the academy also spoke, lauding the bravery and daring of the American privates.

Private Lidicker, always loyal and true, enlisted with the colors April 25, 1918, and reached Havre, Aug. 8, moving forward to the front with all haste. He was transferred to the Third division, Fourth infantry, Intelligence section, and reached the front Sept. 7, taking active part in the St. Mihiel and Verdun offensives, then to Meuse Argonne, where, on Oct. 12, he made the noble sacrifice.

The military funeral of Leslie Lidicker, who died overseas, was held at St. John's, Delafield, Sunday at 2:30 p. m. A military service, with the cadets of St. John's assisting, made it very impressive. Those from here who were present were Mr. and Mrs. A. Wilson, Honeyager family, Mr. and Mrs. T. Yandre, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tucker, Dr. Helen Addenbrooke, Charles Fintel, Mrs. Margaret Dabel, Jake Supetia and family, Misses Ida Sherman, Virginia Welsh, Irene and Marie Carroll, Mrs. A. Burnell, Dorothy Jones, Harry Burnell, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hurst, George Kipp and family, David Kipp, Miss Letitia Kipp, Misses Fern and Lillian Perry and Charles Honeyager.
