DEATHS

Anton Stute

On Wednesday afternoon Anton Stute died at the family home west of Eagle. Mr. Stute was born in Westheim, Germany, December 10, 1843, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Franz Stute. He came to America with his parents and located in the town of Eagle on the farm on which he departed this life. Was married to Miss Agatha Vonrueden of Eagle, who preceded him in death. He was a successful farmer and also held town office for many years until he declined to serve. The funeral will take place from St. Theresa's church Saturday morning, Nov. 24. He leaves surviving him three sons, Frederick of Loyal, Wis., Franz of Idaho, and Joseph P. on the homestead and one daughter, Mrs. Joseph Greiner of Athens, Wis. We shall publish a more extended obituary next week.

John Breidenbach

On Tuesday occurred the death of John Breidenbach at his home in Aberdeen, South Dakota, after a long illness. Mr. Breidenbach was a son of Frederick and Elizabeth Breidenbach, early settlers of Eagle. He was educated in the common schools and in 1865 enlisted as a private in the civil war. On his return from the war he went to Vernon county where he was married, and resided on a farm for several years. Later he moved to Aberdeen. He leaves besides his family, two brothers, Joseph and Martin Breidenbach, the latter residing in Murray, Idaho.

Ruth Pearl Ely

On Saturday Ruth Pearl Ely died after a long illness. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Ely, and was born in Eagle August 13, 1900. Her early school days were spent at Eagleville. Three years she won the prize for perfect attendance. Few indeed were the days when her seat was not occupied. Later she attended school at Eagle. She was always willing to lend a helping hand and was cheerful with a smile for all. She loved children and they loved her. Her father was first and last in her thought.

She was the youngest of three sisters. Her mother preceded her in death twenty years ago. She leaves to mourn her death, her father, two sisters, Mrs. Arthur Smart, and Mrs. William Michaelis, besides many relatives and friends. We all extend our sympathy to the bereaved family.

CARD OF THANKS

The Ely family extend thanks to all who so kindly assisted them by word and deed during the illness and burial of their daughter and sister.

THE ELY FAMILY.

NORMA TALMADGE

IN NEW TRIUMPH

Star's Newest Vehicle, "The Voice From the Minaret," Termed Her Masterpiece

Accustomed as we are to expecting great things from Norma Talmadge, admittedly the most popular actress on the screen today, each of her succeeding picture reveals a new Norma—more perfect, if that were possible, than in her preceding roles; more finished in her artistry. Here is a star who is not content to rest on her lustrous laurels; each new portrayal is marked by advance and progress, by a sincerity and depth amazing in their fineness.

Such is the case with her latest production, "The Voice From the Minaret," a First National picture which opened at the Eagle Opera House, Thanksgiving day, Nov. 29. We went there expecting to be pleased mightily. We left wondering whether we would be able to describe in cold type just how marvelous a work of art this picture really is.

What pleasant thoughts, memories of "Smilin' Through" and "The Eternal Flame" bring to one who has been so fortunate as to see them. We felt then that the summit had been reached and that they could not be excelled from any standpoint. But a greater picture has been brought to the screen by its greatest artist.

Miss Talmadge's inspired acting; Eugene O'Brien's perfect portrayal of his difficult role; a highly efficient supporting cast; a splendid story, replete with dramatic situations; settings that transplant one into the realms of romance—these are but a few of the highlights of "The Voice

From the Minaret," which comes from the gifted pen of Robert Hichens and has been directed in a masterful manner by Frank Lloyd, who numbers "The Eternal Flame" among his accomplishments.

As Lady Adrienne, Miss Talmadge has been given a role that only she could play with such skill—so exacting is the range of dramatic emotions that it demands. One is enthralled by the scope of her talents and by the east with which she weaves the spell of illusion which transports the spectator from the drabness of everyday life to the romance land.

More than any other figure in the motion picture world, Norma Talmadge is responsible for the rapid advance of this art, and the miraculous success of all of her offerings testify to the fact that the public taste is advancing.

"The Voice From the Minaret" is a picture that you cannot afford to miss. Admission 10 and 33 cents.

HOLT ON CHILDREN? MEIGHAN MAKES NEW RULES!

Star of "The Bachelor Daddy" Authority on Care of Kiddies

Between scenes for his latest Paramount picture, "The Bachelor Daddy," Thomas Meighan diligently read Holt on the care of children. In this new picture, which comes to the Eagle Opera House on Nov. 25, he is the custodian of five lively youngsters, and between registering for the camera and keeping the kids in a good humor the genial star had his hands full.

By the time the picture was finished, Mr. Meighan had compiled the following rules for the care of children, Holt not withstanding:

- 1—A cuckoo clock is the best pacifier.
- 2—Never try to wash little Johnny's neck unless you have a supply of candy as a "persuader."
- 3—When children are taken on a Pullman car one should always have an encyclopedia handy to answer all questions.
- 4—When at dinner in a dining car, children should be given free rein, for any attempt to cramp their style is sure to result disastrously.
- 5—When you have guests for dinner don't leave the children alone in nursery, for there is sure to be a riot, which will not only disturb you but your friends.

Leatrice Joy, who was seen here in "Saturday Night" and other Paramount pictures, is Mr. Meighan's leading woman. Admission 10 and 25 cents.

MERTON

Mr. and Mrs. William Kuntz and Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Cutting, while on their way to attend the Eastern Star festivities at Oconomowoc, met with an unfortunate accident. As they turned the Bark River cemetery corner at Hartland their car skidded and turned on its side, not going clear over. Calling the assistance of a nearby resident they righted the car and drove to a doctor's office. Mr. Cutting had both collar bones broken; the others escaped with minor bruises. The car was little damaged. Mr. and Mrs. Kuntz attended the meeting at Oconomowoc, Mrs. Kuntz being one of the officers.

Mrs. Herman Hahn of Pewaukee lake gave a surprise dinner to Mrs. Arthur Hahn of Merton and Mrs. Carl Nelson of Hartland, the occasion being their birthday anniversaries. The guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. Ment Blodgett of Waukesha, Miss Nellie Blodgett of California, Mr. and Mrs. Laris Nelson and son, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nelson and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hahn and daughter, Helen.

"AFTER A WHILE"

It isn't the money you spend now that will make you comfortable by and by—

—it's the money you save now—and during all the "nows" of your producing years.

So many people think they will begin to save "after a while"—in the meantime establishing the spending habit.

Does this seem like good common sense?
