MRS. KATHARINE H. THIELE

Again we are called upon to note the death of another honored citizen, Mrs. Katharine H. Thiele, which occurred at her home in the village on Monday, January 9th, after an illness of several weeks.

Mrs. Thiele was born in Evanston, Ill., July 10th, 1869, and was a daughter of John N. and Anna Klein. Here she attended school and grew to womanhood. Was married to John H. Thiele, of Eagle, in May 1890, and continued to reside in Evanston until May 1899, when they came to Eagle where she resided to the time of her death.

Mr. Thiele died May 22, 1924. Mrs. Thiele was a woman of domestic tastes and enjoyed her evenings with the family at home.

She is the last of her family to succumb, three sisters having preceded her in death. The funeral took place from St. Theresa church of which the family are members, on Monday morning, Jan. 16th, Rev. Father Elsinger, Pastor, officiating, with interment in the new church cemetery where lies buried her husband. The altar society attended in a body.

She leaves surviving her three sons, Joseph J., a contractor at Allens Grove, Herman H., a merchant here, and Bernard J., also a contractor, and two daughters, Mrs. Charles Seefeldt, of Los Angeles, and Miss Louise V. Thiele, bookkeeper at Bank of Eagle. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved family.
