"Without a doubt Frederick Carberry is our favorite tenor and when the artist arose to interpret his role, being the first soloist of the oratorio, the reception was a welsome one. The clear voice of Mr. Carberry never was shown to better advantage than when he rendered the grand aria "Every Valley Shall be Exalted and Every Mountain and Hill Laid Low. and the proceeding recitative, with his excellent expression and perfect precision. His rendition of "Thy Rebuke Hua Broken His Heart" was very sympathetic."

NINE BOATS OVER

And Crews Have Perilous Rescue From the Water.

STORMSTRIKES DURING REGATTA

Pewaukee Lake Scene of Great Excitement and Danger, But No Fa-talities Result.

A furious storm which came up suddenly and broke with great violence played havoc among the yachts on Pewaukee Lake, out for their weekly regatta, Saturday afternoon, and overturned nine of them, their crews only by a miracle escaping drowning. The storm was entirely local and was felt in this city only in a sudden though | "Oats promise a large crop, if not intense gust of wind and a few drops injured by an early frost."

On the lake the storm is said to have been one of the worst that ever visited that region. The yachts went dreds and thousands of acres. I visited over one after the other, the men in them scrambling to catch hold of their been here over 20 years, and who has overturned craft, and so holding on seen all the hard times of the early until rescue came from the shore after settler, but, who now has over 700 the storm had blown itself out.

Probably the narrowest escape was experienced on board the Starke launch, Ernestine, which carried the officials of the regatta.

Driven before the wind of the gale, unable to discern the yachts in the contest because of the downpour, the little craft, after a short struggle with the waves, was nearly wrecked on the beach in an attempt to seek shelter.

But for W. H. Meyer, one of the judges of the regatta, leaping to a pier and then securing fast the launch, it would either have foundered or been crushed in its buffeting against the pier. The party on board the Ernestine included Judge Emil Wallber, W. H. Meyer, Timer E. E. White, Mrs. W. H. Meyer, George Hall and two children. No less exciting and perilous was the experience of the crew of the Comet and the Albatross. Both of these boats turned turtle just after crossing the finish line, and their crews hung to the overturned craft until launches put forth from the shore to their wes-Pawling's Mercury was the first of the large yachts to capsize, and its crew was rescued with difficulty. The Allimac, seeing the predicament of the Mercury, lowered its sails and man aged to weather the gale.

The cat boats fared the worst of the racers. Five of them capsized, and only two of them completed the race. The boats that failed to weather the gale were those owned by George Kieckhefer, Balzar Hoffman, Rom, Louis Wollaeger and H. J. Seefeld. Every member of the crews floundered about in the water in the wildest confusion, but all were picked up by launches and escaped with but a good wetting.

Arnold Meyer, who salled the Alban tross, swam nearly a half mile to the shore for assistance for his crew, which hung to the capsized champion. A young man by the name of Hennes sey, on the Mercury, got underneath the sail and nearly drowned. He had the presence of mind, however, to dive beneath the boat and cling to the other er side until rescued. During the progress of the gale which lasted only about twenty min-utes, the half-rater Aida overturned six times. It was sailed by the Alnn brothers, who when picked up were entirely exhausted from their experience. The boat is of the center board

PLEASING COMMENT.

Rev. N. J. Aplin Writes of Great Harvest Fields in the Northwest.

IRISH DAY AT MILWAUKEE.

Mayor Dunne to Speak and a Great Day Promised.

The Irlsh societies and citizens of Milwaukee, have completed arrangements for their annual picnic at Schlitz park, on Saturday, August 12. This promises to be a most interesting event, and large delegations are expected from surrounding towns to enjoy the festivities of the day and spend some time among the attractions which Milwaukee offers in mid-sum-

The Irish plente, this year, will have many interesting features; the Hon. E. F. Dunne, mayor of Chicago, will deliver an address in the afternoon. Mayor Dunne, by his recent election at Chleago, has won national notice, and will no doubt have a large and enthusiastic audlence. An Irish piper and violinist have been secured, and the hearts of lowin's sons and daughters will be gladdened by their charms ing music. The Hennessey Brothers, champion jig' and reel dancers from Ireland, will be present. They are masters of their art, and well worth seeing.

The athletic contests, under the direction of Dr. J. E. Purtell, will be another interesting feature. There will be a variety of contests for men, women and children, as well as for amateur athleten. Valuable prizes will be awarded and an opportunity will be given visitors to share the amusements and take home prizes. Ward's military band will furnish music during the afternoon and evening, dinner, supper and refreshments will be served at the park, and the day's entertainment will close with a ball in the large pavillon.

satisfaction for a woman to feel that she can write to another telling her the most private and confidential details about her illness, and know that her letter will be seen by a woman only, a wo-man full of sympathy for her sick sisters, and above all, a woman who has had more experience in treating female ills than any living person.

Over one hundred thousand cases of female diseases come before Mrs. Pink ham every year, some personally, others by mail, and this has been going on for twenty years, day after day. Surely women are wise in seeking advice from a woman of such experience, especially when it is absolutely

Mrs. Pinkham never violates the confidence of women, and every testimo nial letter published is done so with the written consent or request of the writer, in order that other sick women may be benefited as they have been. Mrs. Fred Seydel, of 412 North 54th

Street, West Philadelphia, Pa., writes: Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Over a year ago I wrote you a letter asking advice, as I had female ills and could not carry a child to maturity. I received your kind letter of instructions and followed your advice. I am not only a well woman in consequence, but have a beautiful baby girl. I wish every suffering woman in the land would write you for advice, as you have done so much for me." Dear Mrs. Pinkham:-

Just as surely as Mrs. Seydel was cured, will Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cure every woman suffering from any form of female ills. No other medicine in all the world has such a record of cures of female troubles as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Therefore no prudent woman will accept any substitute which a druggist may offer.

If you are sick, write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice. It is free and always helpful.

An Eye Witness of Fight Between The Monitor and Merrimac Tells of it.

In the last number of The Baraboo Republic we find the following interesting references to the historic sea fight between the Merrimac and Monitor in Hampton Roads, March 8, 1862:

"Nearly everyone has been more or less familiar with the tragedy, commonly known as a naval battle, between the Merrimac and the little Monitor on the James River on March 9, 1862. The histories tell us that the many years practiced law in Milwaubattle was a draw, but when R. W. kee, is now a resident of Cuba.
