

JOHN JOSEPH BRADY

On Monday occurred the death of John Joseph Brady after a long illness, aged seventy-nine years. Deceased was a son of the late Michael F. and Catharine McCabe Brady, who came to America from Ireland in 1842 locating in Oneida County, New York.

Mr. Brady attended the common school and assisted his parents on the home farm until he reached his majority when he spent some time in Chicago, and later in the oil fields in Pennsylvania. Returning he again engaged in farming and was married to Miss Eva McCabe, daughter of Andrew and Amorett Cole McCabe, pioneers of Eagle.

He purchased his father-in-law's farm where he resided to the time of his death. In politics he was a democrat and held the office of town treasurer and other offices. In religion he was a Catholic. Three sons, Frank M., Merrill and Irving, and two daughters, Mrs. Willard Jones and Mrs. Jessie B. Sprague, besides a sister, Mrs. George E. McCabe, survive him.

The funeral took place from the family home to the St. Theresa church Wednesday morning, Father Elsinger, pastor, officiating. Interment was in the new church cemetery where lie buried his wife and other members of the family who preceded him in death. In our next issue we shall have a more extended notice.
