Locals and Personals

J. H. Olds still continues as agent for harvesting machines having reserved the agency for the McCormick machines. The farm implement agency he, of course has transferred to O. E. Scherer in Palmyra as was reported.

The recent insurance investigation and subsequent arrest and prosecution of a local agent would require an explanation on account of another company represented here by F. G. Parks. He represents the Phoenix Ins. Co. of Hartford, which is in no wise connected with the Phenix of Brooklyn who had trouble with its agent here. Mr. Parks has been in the insurance business here for many years and out of justice to him on account of the similarity of the names of the said companies we make this explanation. He has always done his work honestly both with his patrons and the company and continues as agent for various companies.

Two days in Palmyra brought us in contact with many of its leading business men in that pleasant village, including the honorable board and H. J. Piper, attorney, all of whom are pleasant people to meet. We must not forget the Enterprise and its hustling editor who is always on the lookout for the interests of himself and Palmyra generally. We enjoyed this visit and hope to meet the gentlemen at our office in Eagle if business or pleasure calls them this way, for Palmyra contains many Eagleites and is considered a friendly sister village.

We regret to hear that F. G. Parks is quite seriously indisposed. For many years he has been regular in his attendance at his office. We miss his accustomed appearance and hope soon to see him back in his usual place.

Geo. Eifert and John Tolfie, of Palmyra, were callers at this office Tuesday.

What might have been a serious accident terminated happily for Mrs. Anton Agathen, Jr. As she and a friend were enjoying a sleigh ride and driving on Jericho street near the blacksmith shop some children came suddenly around the corner which frightened the horse which suddenly turned and overturned the cutter throwing them out, ran down the street, struck a telephone pole which loosened the cutter and running a little farther stopped at a hitching post. A slightly broken harness was the only bad result aside from the fright.

Mrs. John Jones, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Ezra Clemons, of Minneapolis, are guests of relatives at Eagle, their former home.

Mr. Rohleder, asst. cashier of the bank of East Troy, was a pleasant caller at this office on Wednesday.

Joseph Ward and Miss Heinrichs, of East Troy, were married recently. Their home will be at Elkhorn.

Last week's issue of The Quill was not complete on account of some error at the Press office at Waukesha where this paper is printed. We wish to have The Quill appear regularly at the home of every subscriber and advertiser and shall strive to keep our promise.

Ed. J. Lins was at East Troy Tuesday, Theo. Schnitzler, of Watertown, was at Eagle Tuesday with H. M. Loibl, local agent for his Insurance Co.

Will Welch, of Oconomowoc, was at Eagle Tuesday.

Mrs. Walter Hartshorn, of Waukesha, spent Saturday with Estella Stephens.

Mrs. Belle Shultis has returned to Columbus after attending the funeral of Nelson Shultis.

Miss Ida Lau has recently been very sick with the measles.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Mitchell are rejoicing over the arrival of a nice, big boy named George Baxter Mitchell.

Nelson Shultis died at his home last Thursday, after a lingering illness. Deceased was 76 years of age and leaves a wife and one son.

Mr. Stratoon, of Janesville, gave a very interesting temperance talk in the church last Sunday evening.

Ben A. Breidenbach and sister, Miss Anna M., Ed Roesch and Henry Schmidt were called to Milwaukee on account of the serious illness of John Roesch.

Miss Mary Watson died last Monday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Herman Collins, at Ponchatula, La. She was buried here Thursday at 2 o'clock, Rev. Wilson conducting the services at the M. E. church.

James Wilford, of St. Croix, Wis., was the guest of O. H. Bigelow and family over Sunday. Mr. Wilford represents the Boardman & Gray Piano Co. in his district.

The funeral of Mrs. Watson, sister of Mr. W. W. Perry, took place at North Prairie on Thursday afternoon.

H. J. Mathews of Palatine, Ill., had business at Eagle this week.

We learn that the public school is preparing to give an entertainment. The former ones have been successful and no doubt this will prove equally as good.

Selfishness predominates, a millionaire once said whenever got any real happiness out of his money. He began to do good. Why is it we hoard and hang onto the paltry dimes depriving ourselves, often times, of the necessities of life and then when the death angel calls, we must leave all behind, and no gratitude from those whose life journey we might have eased.

Many failures in life are due to want of preparation. In after years when advancement is offered, you fail to perform the new duties, the failure is easily traced back to early lessons skimmed over, neglect to take advantage of opportunities offered. The lessons and training we are receiving to-day is fitting us for some future action. Look to it that you do not waste your opportunities now, once gone they never come back.

W. E. Mayhew has bought the Wm. H. Uglow building and part of the stock of furniture. We are informed that he has already taken possession and will attend to the business personally. Mr. Mayhew is a well to do farmer with good business qualities. We wish him success.

When the village was incorporated we expected law and order reasonably maintained, yet under the special law governing cases of a misdemeanor. The various village officers in this county are deprived of jurisdiction and the sheriff must serve process and make arrests under warrants issued by the municipal courts.

He receives a salary for this work and the county (of course) should not pay a double sum for it. This would be all right, but in many villages it causes inconvenience and also much annoyance. Not always can a lawless act be suppressed at once, and local officers are slow to act unless paid by the village, because the county allows them no pay for such services. Thus it comes that disturbances and misdemeanors pass without punishment which tends to breed recklessness and a continuance of such performances to the moral detriment of the village as well as its external surroundings. Not long ago, a man who had been flirting with the joyful, disturbed a social meeting and also called out citizens at a late hour, just for the fun of meanness. On another occasion a habitual excessive imbibor of the ardent goods, was around all day in his own joyful way, which makes a bad impression on the young children as well as on visitors. Without placing blame on any individual or officer, we might offer criticism and also a suggestion to repeal the laws, making such actions possible away from the county seat, without immediate arrest or punishment. These matters should be placed under the control of the municipality direct to enable them to meet out prompt and impartial justice to all.

On Tuesday afternoon occurred the death of John W. Hage, after a brief illness. The cause of his death was pneumonia. He was born in Eagle, March 9, 1847, at the old homestead, where he lived up to the time of his death and was a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hage, Sr., early settlers of Eagle. He was educated in the common schools and always remained at home on the farm with his parents acquiring a modest fortune by his industry and energy. He was temperate in his habits and domestic in his tastes. In politics he voted independent of party ties and though following in the file of the Republican party was at one time elected to the office of Supervisor in the democratic stronghold of Eagle. On Jan. 3, 1890, he with ten others, organized the Eagle Camp, M. W. of A. No. 1113, and was chosen worthy advisor and one of the board of managers. He was a regular attendant at camp meetings and was a true and faithful member and officer. He always worked for the interests of the camp, of which he was a charter member, and never closed his purse to an appeal for financial aid. The funeral took place on Thursday afternoon, Rev. Eldredge conducted the services at the M. E. church. At the grave the ceremonies were in charge of the Eagle Camp, M. W. of A. No. 1119. Notwithstanding the inclement weather, there was a large procession of Woodmen, mourners, neighbors and friends. He leaves surviving him, an aged father, one brother, Samuel and two sisters, Mrs. H. H. Earle and Mrs. Mary Griffin, all of whom reside at Eagle. His mother died several years ago. We all extend our sympathy to the bereaved family.

The whist party met on Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Stebbins, of Jericho.

A Chinese proverb says: A hundred men make an encampment, but it takes a woman to make a home. How true, it is she who consecrates that sweet place which we call "home." Walls and furnishings do not make it nor does the grandest palace. At home you are beloved, your errors meet with forgiveness. Should we not make the best of it?

Rob Morris Chapter, No. 10, O. E. S. installed officers Monday evening. Mrs. Ada Burton, W. M.; M. V. Helgeson, W. P.; Miss Hattie F. Clemons, Sec'y.; Mrs. Martha Yerks, Past W. M. of Rob Morris chapter now Matron of Friendship chapter Milton Junction, installed the officers after which there was a fine banquet.

Through bravery and strategy the Boers have astonished the world. Their successes seek their equal among the happenings in the century. Who will be victorious England or the Boers is a prominent question. The Boers thus far have proven themselves accurate mathematicians and the British Lion which has persecuted these peaceable and liberty loving people for many years has in this war met with damaging reverses. With the Boers comes proof of what it means and indicates if unity exists among people although the number is small in comparison with the greatness of their enemy their unity and the high patriotic participation in a good cause becomes a powerful support in breaking the might of the cannon. The people are in favor of the Boers. Uncle Sam has remained neutral with an inclination to favor England a strong proof of the administration leaning towards imperialism.

The high winds on Sunday afternoon with a small fire on the Corlin Marsh farm occupied by Wm. Pluess, created considerable excitement among near neighbors. No large damage was done. Dry grass and some hay was reduced to ashes and then ended the fire and also the fear of the neighbors that their homes and property were in danger.

EAGLE BEING MODERNIZED.

One of the Best and Most Economically Lighted Villages in the State.

Eagle's new lighting system is now in operation and is giving excellent satisfaction. Under direction of Mr. Rudd, of the Wisconsin Heat & Light Co. of Waukesha the contract for ten lights has been completed and the work has been accepted by the village board. The gas burned in the lights is generated from gasoline and each light throws a brilliancy of 120 candle power, which lights perfectly a radius of over four hundred feet and at the extremely low cost of two cents a night per light.

This new gas has evidently revolutionized the mode of all kinds of lighting and will, no doubt in time, supplant both electricity and coal gas. So far as we can learn the people of Eagle have nothing but words of praise for the Wis. Heat & Light Co. and their system of lighting. They also put in individual systems for residences and stores, for which Frank Kloppenburg has been appointed their local agent.

Here is something for you doubters to contemplate. It has often been affirmed that if the dead should be resurrected and come back to earth, there would not be room enough on the globe to hold them. Now see what a celebrated Professor has concluded after figuring each generation from the time of Noah, including the present inhabitants, according to best census reports. Allowing 1 square foot to each person, they could all stand in the state of Texas and spare a few square feet besides.

ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR

WHATEVER the outcome of the present trouble in South Africa may be, the Boer has proved himself a fighter of no small ability. He has planned and worked out problems and contests in a way to make Uncle Paul Krueger and his people well thought of in all parts of the civilized world.

Is it superloyalty to Senator Spooner or real disgust with President McKinley that prompts Waukesha's only republican newspaper to suggest Spooner for the presidency? —The Dispatch.

What can this mean? The Press certainly hasn't said anything of this kind. It's all correct, Mr. Dispatch—except what we said.

And now it is said that Mayor Born visited Waukesha last Thursday preparatory to launching his boom for Congress. This is another candidate according to democratic authorities that is going to make it warm for Mr. Barney. Meanwhile Mr. Barney is quietly sawing wood in Washington and letting political booms take care of themselves, a very sensible thing to do. Waukesha county might warm up over a home candidate, but there doesn't seem much danger from the ones that the democratic press springs upon the republican party.

THE Republican administration has done good work for Cuba, as the following words from Mr. Rubans, formerly counsel for the Cuban junta will show. In an interview he said:

No country on earth is more at peace than Cuba is. The veterans of the revolution and all elements, even those supposed to be most at unrest, are deeply gratified by the programme announced by General Wood—the reform of the courts so as to give speedy trials, the clearing of the prisons of those who have been languishing under the slow procedure, the establishment of a system of free public schools, and the construction of roads, all with a view to local necessities.

So long as there was any doubt as to the purpose of the United States, the revolutionary element stood aloof and expectant. Now, however, they feel that they must constitute the conservative party in Cuba—that is, the party which supports the political programme of the President. The day is rapidly approaching when all the elements of Cuba, even those who are opposed to the revolution will be called upon to aid in the political reconstruction of the island and to form a government in which all the inhabitants of Cuba may take part.

THE late General Lawton was not only a great fighter, but a man of strong convictions as well. In a letter to John Barrett lately published, he expressed himself on the subject of imperialism as follows:

I would to God that the truth of this whole Philippine situation could be known by every one in America as I know it. If the real history, inspiration, and conditions of this insurrection, and the influences, local and external, that now encourage the enemy, as well as the actual possibilities of these islands and peoples and their relations to this great East, could be understood at home, we would hear no more talk of unjust "shooting of government" into the Philippines, or of hauling down our flag in the Philippines. If the so-called anti-imperialists would honestly ascertain the truth on the ground and not in distant America, they, whom I believe to be honest men misinformed, would be convinced of the error of their statements and conclusions and of the unfortunate effect of their publications here. If I am shot by a Filipino bullet, it might as well come from one of my own men, because I know from observation confirmed by captured prisoners that the continuance of fighting is chiefly due to reports that are sent out from America.
