

Obit. - Gale, Josephine

Sept. 17, 1852 Dec. 30, 1938

Passed

On Friday, December 30th, 1938, occurred the death of Mrs. Josephine Gale after a long illness.

Mrs. Gale was born in Milwaukee September 17, 1852, and was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wambold who came here from Granville, Wis., in 1871 and first leased the grist mill at Eagle Lake and after a few years purchased it. Mrs. Gale was married to Samuel Gale on December 25, 1872 in Eagle; Rev. Rufes Cooley of the M. E. Church officiated. Mr. Gale died on November 13, 1892, her father died on May 25, 1908, and the mother, formerly Miss Mary Barndt, died on January 25, 1916.

Mrs. Gale is survived by three sons; Archie H. Gale, who conducts a garage business here, Henry at East Troy, Arthur of Milwaukee and one son, John M., who preceded her in death. Ten grand children and nineteen great grand children survive her also.

Mrs. Gale spent nearly her whole life in Eagle. She was a member of the M. E. Church and Ladies Aid society. For many years she resided with her son in Eagle. She was a true friend and neighbor and in all of her active life established for herself a reputation which commanded the respect of all who knew her.

The funeral took place from the M. E. Church in Eagle Monday afternoon, the Rev. Beers officiating, and burial was in the family lot in Jericho cemetery where lie buried her relatives who preceded her in death. Those from away who attended the funeral were; Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Conway, Mrs. Charles Cole, Miss Grace Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Cory, Harvey Seeley of Dousman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Laatz of Mukwanago, Mr. and Mrs. James Gaskell of East Troy.
