Lincoln said that this is a govern ment of the people, for the people and by the people, but at present it appears to be a government of the politician, by the politician and for the politician. In our last elections the issues were disregarded as soon as the result of the election was announced. This is true of the last Presidential election as well as of the last Congressional election. Is it any wonder that the people are aggrieved at our representatives? The Congress has been in session for many months, but what have they done for the good of the country? Echo answers—what have they done? On questions of in-terest to all the people they fall back or rules and practices for delay while on other questions that were never made issues, they act over night. It is also true that Lincoln said that nothing good could be lost by taking time but many evils could be averted. We ask them why so hasty on some questions? The coming year will require that all return to the people and give an account of their stewardship and we hope that on this occasion the people will take hold of their govern-ment and elect men to office who will make this once again a governmest of the people.

INSPECTOR SHOWALTER MEETS LOCAL ENUMERATORS

AT COURT HOUSE ON MONDAY

Women Will Do Large Part of Work In This City and County. Begin January 2

Inspector E. J. Showalter, who has charge of the census for 1920 in the first congressional district of Wisconsin, was in this city on Monday and held a meeting at the court-house which was attended by most of the enumerators in the county. Mr. Showalter gave an informal address outlining the work of the enumerators and answered any questions which they desired. He also called at The Freeman office in company with Postmaster A. J. Dopp.
Mr. Showalter said that many more women than ever before were to do census work this year. The work of women in this line has been proven particularly good and so they have been given a fair chance for appointment.

The public is urged to cooperate with the enumerators in every possible way. The census returns are extremely valuable for many purposes and should be accurate and complete.

If any individual is not counted the totals are to that extent incorrect.

Make it easy for the enumerators. Make them warm and comfortable while they are asking the necessary questions and tell them what they want to know just as accurately as you can. Remember they are obliged by law to ask every question they do

Penalties For Refusing
The enumerators will start their work on January 2, and in the city will have two weeks in which to complete enumerating data in the wards assigned to them. They will have the signed to them. They will have the carded entirely. No person there exists a carded entirely. No person there exists a carded entirely. right to enter any dwelling for the purpose of obtaining the information required, a special act of Congress providing for this. There are legal penalties for persons who refuse to answer the census questions or wilfully give answers that are false.

The men and women appointed to serve as enumerators of the Fourteenth Decennial Census are charged by law with the collection of all facts necessary to fill out properly the print-ed census schedules which each enumerator will carry when making the house-to-house canvass of the territory assigned to him. Each enumerain his district and make his inquiries of the head or some other member of the family who is competent to answer the census questions. The Act of Congress providing for the Census gives each enumerator the right to enter every dwelling in his district for the purpose of obtaining the information required. Enumerators will carry with them at all times their identification cards and also their written commissions from the Government which they will show whenever requested to do so. They and considerate, but in those rare instances where information necessary to fill out the questions is denied them, they are empowered by law to insist on correct answers. There are legal penalties for refusing to answer the census questions or wilfully giving answers that are false.

Each enumerator is prohibited by law from publishing or communicating any information obtained through the census regarding any individual or his affairs. This obligation to secrecy likewise applies to all persons connected with the Census. After the schedules are all filled out they are sealed up and sent to Washington fore, need fear that his personal affairs will be disclosed or that the information will be used to harm him in any way. It is expected that the work of enumerating urban districts will be completed in two weeks and of rural districts in one month, except where severe weather makes it necessary to postpone activities.

GOOD CITIZENSHIP FOR WOMEN

(Theodora W. Youmans, editor)

This department has changed its name. It still remains a woman suffrage department but it takes on new characteristics. It will aim to help the women of this county to prepare for the duties which have been laid upon them by the legislature in giving them the right to vote for Presidential electors, and for the still broader duties which will come to them when the partial suffrage they now have gives place to full suffrage, the same as that enjoyed by men.

The editor of this column has accepted a position as temporary chairman of the Women's Division of the on December 2nd, the State Republican party in Wisconsin. The appointment was made by George A. West, chairman of the state central committee. The business of the women's division will be to bring to the attention of women of this state the duties of active citizenship and the principles and policies of the Republican party.

A meeting of Republican men and women of this section of the country will be held at the Congress hotel in Chicago January 5-6, at which policies and methods will be discussed. number of representative women of the state are expected to attend.

Not a large vote on the road bonds, but a very decided one in favor of the bonds. This town stood second in the in favor of the good roads proposition and many are still hoping that those in charge of the work will see the necessity for making a conjcrete highway of the old Janesville road, which has such a heavy traffic over it and taps such a rich dairying and trucking country and is also the natural way for the Milwaukee pleasure seekers to reach the lakes.—L. Link took a sleigh load of young mar-ried peorle from about here to the old Bayley home last Tuesday evening, where they were entertained with the rest of the "bunch," by Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Bayley.—Seventy-five relatives, friends and neighbors surprised M. and Mrs. Frank Abel on Wednesday evening, Dec. 17, in honor of their 20th wedding anniversary. It was also the 89th birthday of Mr. Jacobi, Mrs. Abel's father, who seemed to enjoy the occasion as much as any one.—A fine program and a fine Christmas tree were given by the two departments of our state graded school in the Norris school building Thursday Dec. 18. Quite a good many of the neighborhood attended. School closed Thursday afternoon for the holidays, Miss Warren going to Racine to attend a wedding and Miss man Joecks.—Mrs. John Owens and Flynn going to her home.—On Sunday inorning, Dec. 21, the dreaded fire alaim of "Central" called us about 7. o'clock for the Norris farm. Men folks were, in most places, still milking and hurrying to get done and the milk cooled in time for milk trucks and the car on the Interurban. Very soon a good many of them were on Christmas at the latter's home.—Miss. their way to the Norris farm, where the beautiful new barn, just lately completed, was already in flames. > Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an Inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a runbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed. Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.
