Charles Lee

On Tuesday evening in Chicago, Charles Lee died of pneumonia after a short illness. He was a son of Mrs. Mary Boland Lee of Eagle and was born in Massachusetts on April 30, 1888, came to Wisconsin with the family about twenty five years ago and was well and favorably known here. The funeral took place from St. Theresa church yesterday morning, Rev. J. A. Ritger officiating and interment was in the new cemetery. He leaves to mourn his untimely death, his mother, one sister, Miss Minerva Lee, a nurse in Chicago, a brother, Allie Lee, employed by the Standard Oil company of Milwaukee. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved family.
