DEATH

Fred H. Vogt

The funeral of Fred H. Vogt, who died suddenly at Kenosha February 3, was held at Eagle last Friday and interment was in the new cemetery of St. Theresa church. Mr. Vogt was a son of Joseph and Johanna Amann Vogt, early settlers of Eagle, and was born in the town of East Troy July 13, 1863. His early life was spent at the family home on a farm south of Eagle. He later learned the trade of a stone cutter and worked in and near Chicago. He was married there and leaves surviving him his widow and one adult daughter. Two brothers, John, of Troy, and Otis, of East Troy, and three sisters, Mrs. George Witte, Mukwonago, Mrs. L. F. Neu, Chicago, Mrs. Wm. Mohr, Milwaukee, also survive. His parents preceded him in death, the father in 1902, and the mother in 1918. We extend sympathy to the bereaved ones.
