Roadmasters report several washouts on the roads in the town, some roads are so badly washed out as to require extensive repairs. The Melendy's Prairie near Dewolf's Corners is probably in a more dangerous condition than any other, on account of the large amount of water flowing over it from the hills East and South.
About ten rods of good road washed away to a depth of four feet in a single day.

The town election has passed now, let us turn our attention to incorporating this village and thus gain recognition among the villages in the country.
Eagle needs many improvements on streets and other measures of importance to all residing within its limits, which can only be had by separating it from the town and make it a body corporate. The license money would then belong wholly to the village and would be more than is needed to cover the expense of administration and improvements. It would place the village government in the hands of those directly interested, instead of as it now stands, to people residing in all parts of the town.

Francis G. Parks received a letter from Jontie M. Jones, of Philadelphia, concerning the news of the death of his father which took place in that city, March 28. He had been suffering from grippe for several weeks, but his illness was not considered serious by his family. Mr. Jones will no doubt be remembered by many of our readers as he conducted a mercantile business at Eagle and was well and favorably known. Through the kindness of Mr.
Parks we were given the above notice for publication which will be of interest to the many friends of Mr. Jones and his family, who enjoyed the friendship and esteem of all during their residence at Eagle.

The Easter Ball.
On Monday evening the Opera Hall was crowded with merry dancers from Eagle and vicinity, the occasion being the Easter Ball, under the auspices of the young men and young Ladies' Societies of St. Theresa Church. The weather was mild and being a bright night many took advantage of the opportunity and joined the festive round. Supper was served by the young ladies in the banquet rooms.
Music was furnished by Prof. Lurvey, of Eagle, assisted by two gentlemen from Milwaukee. All had a pleasant time.

ings. For sale.

The Town Election.

Tuesday was a beautiful day. Plenty of sunshine no rain or storm to prevent the voters from coming to the village, to exercise their franchise and designate their choice for town office. A fair sprinkling of candidates and their lieutenants appeared on the scene at an early hour awaiting the coming of the election officers. At nine o'clock a. m. chairman, L. E. Hull and Ed. Bossing-ham, (Anton Kalb the third supervisor being unqualified to act, because the town board was wholly Democratic), with John C. Wilton, clerk, proceeded to the Opera Hall where the town meeting was held. The reading of the report of the board of audit occupied only a short time and was adopted without opposition. A resolution by Nath. Peardon, of Melendy's Prairie, to appropriate more money this year to fix up roads in that part of the town, met with strenuous opposition from Wm. H. Tuohy, who succeeded in carrying an amendment thereto reducing the same asked for to $25.00. A. J. Pardee was chosen Republican inspector, H. M. Loibl, Assistant, clerk of election and Moody H.
Bigelow and Geo. A. Sherman, Ballot clerks. During this time candidates were laboring for support and when the voting began a half hundred cast their ballots in regular order. The voting in the forenoon was light and when the hour hand reached twelve o'clock only one hundred votes were polled out of a possible three hundred. At this time the For License vote was light as many known license men refrained from voting on the question. The main effort of the political workers was directed toward the election of a clerk. Consequently the afternoon was more lively and although both parties did all in their power to win out, it was plain, as the time for closing the polls drew near that all of the Democratic candidates would be elected. Promptly at 5 p. m. the polls were closed as to the town election. After which the poll lists were closely scanned to ascertain the probable majority. The license and judicial polls were held open until sundown and this kept the contestants in suspense for one and one half hour. This to some was a long time to wait, to find what effect their arduous labors had during the day and how many pretending friends had kept their promises. The judicial votes were canvassed first and then the license vote was counted. The latter showed a majority of 98 votes for license. It took some time to canvass the town ticket as a large number of split tickets were voted. The whole number of Democratic tickets was 160, out of this number there were 46 split tickets. The whole number of Republican tickets was 121, and of this number 75 were split tickets. The results showed a clean sweep for the Democrats by large majorities. This settled the business for the defeated candidates who soon left the hall. The victorious one however as is natural remained to discuss the work of the day and to show their appreciation of the compliment bestowed on them by their fellow citizens. The contest was a friendly one and nothing occurred to mar the good feeling extant. The following were elected:

For Supervisors,
T. J. Brady, chairman
H. C. Broeker
Chas. Worm

For Town Clerk,
J. H. Campbell

For Treasurer,
Ed. Macholdt

For Assessor,
Matthew Clohisy

For Justices,
J. M. Partridge
Arthur Roekteacher
James P. Donlan (vacancy)

For Constables,
Geo. Witte
Otis Voght
Joseph Newcomb.

ELECTION NOTES.

Giles L. Lean, Republican candidate for chairman, conceded the election of T. J. Brady by 45 majority two hours before the polls were closed.

H. H. Earle, a Prohibition Republican. In speaking of the election prior to the opening of the polls, said Brady will be elected chairman.

Prohibitionist Mayhew and Anti Prohibitionist Draper, were candidates for supervisor on the same ticket (Rep.) and received an equal number of votes.

John C. Wilton was an efficient town clerk.

The Campbell's came swift on election day.

It was a busy day for Joe Vanrueden.
Willis Wilton refrained from voting on the license question.

Ed Macholdt defeated Wm. A. Logan for treasurer, by a comfortable majority. But the old soldier made him earn his laurels.

Frank Thomas made no effort to defeat his opponent Matthew Clohisy, for the office of Assessor.

Pat McCabe slung lots of mud, but only onto his overcoat. He blames his Democratic 'Bus for that.

Justice Donlan will have Constable Newcomb as his ministerial officer in the eastern district.

Those who didn't vote for the successful candidates, voted for the other fellows. That's all there is about it.

The newly elected town officers will meet Saturday to take the oath of office.

Much will be expected from the town board the coming year.

Incorporate the village and have a another election.

Edwin W. Parsons Drowned.

This morning as the section hands on the railroad made their regular inspection tour eastward, they discovered a human body under the ice in a small pond of water at the junction of the St. Paul and Elkhorn railway's on closer examination they found it was the body of Edwin W. Parsons who resides about one mile east of the village.
He had been following his usual business of shearing sheep and received his pay following which he would always stimulate. It was in this condition that he wended his way home about 8 p. m. and got within twenty rods of his home. He evidently was mistaken as to the exact position of the gate and started into the pond, enclosed by a wire fence on the South and East. An inquest was held and thirteen witnesses were sworn. The Jury after being out but a short time rendered the following verdict.

We the undersigned Jurors on the inquest held at Eagle, Wis., April 6th 1899, on the body of E. W. Parsons, do find that the deceased came to his death, while under the influence of liquor, by being drowned in a pot hole near the C. M. & St. Paul R. R. track, about one half mile east of the depot.

Signed,
Dan Clohisy,
G. A. Sherman,
E. Bossingham,
F. X. Smith,
Jos. Vonrueden, Jr.,
Isaac Bradley.

Wm. A. Reynolds, Justice of the Peace

He was born in the little burg of Jericho, November 10th 1844, and was by occupation a farmer, well digger and sheep shearer. He was a soldier in the Civil war and was granted a pension very recently. Was married to Miss Mary A. Kiltz, December 31st 1870, by whom he had eight children, Mrs.
Bert Pitzer, Mrs. F. W. Faestel, Mrs.
Elmer Babcock, Mrs. Fred A. Rockteack, George, who was a soldier in the Spanish War, Greeley, Ray and Roy, all of whom survive him. He the first of his family to join the silent majority.
The funeral will take place from the residence on Saturday afternoon under the auspices of the Eagle Picket Post, of which he was a member. Mr.
Parsons was honest in his business dealings and considered a good man. His greatest misfortune was his liberal desire for intoxicating liquors. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved family.
