She was a reliable, hard worker and always punctual and on schedule. Nancy was tough and capable but kind and caring. She had a good sense of humor and was able to find the light even in difficult situations. She took great care of her family and was the best wife and mom anyone could ask for. She enjoyed spending time with her husband and sons, cooking delicious meals for her family, fishing (and out-fishing) her husband, Jeff, and enjoying her land in Northern Wisconsin. Nancy will be deeply missed but forever remembered by those she leaves behind.
