

Westgor Funeral Home - Neenah

SUSAN MABEL BRINSKO

(June 29, 1951 - December 31, 2023)

Susan Brinsko, age 72 of Neenah, passed away on December 31, 2023 after a two year battle with Multiple Myeloma.

Sue was born June 29, 1951 in West Allis, Wisconsin to James C. and Bernice (Oelhafen) Grigg. She graduated from Central High School in West Allis in 1969 and received a degree in nursing from the University of Wisconsin - Madison. She was a true and loyal Badger fan, always sporting her Bucky Badger pride.

Sue married Robert Brinsko on December 30, 1983 and settled in Elm Grove, eventually moving to a hobby farm in Eagle, Wisconsin, where they resided for over two decades. The family raised a menagerie of animals, including chickens, llamas, and chinchillas.

Sue was drawn to nature and loved connecting with the outdoors as much as she could. She loved gardening, walking in the woods, reading, hammocks, knitting, raising animals, and playing with her grandchildren.

Sue is preceded in death by her parents; daughter, Emily Clare Brinsko; granddaughter, Violet Brinsko; and brother-in-law William Dygon.

Sue is survived by children Nicholas (Eleanor) Brinsko of Sun Prairie, Wisconsin and Katheryn (Matthew) Stadtmueller of Neenah, Wisconsin; grandchildren Peter and Anna Brinsko and Oliver and Lily Sue Stadtmueller; siblings Catherine (Dan) Knickelbein, Jackie Grigg, James E. (Denise) Grigg, David (Joyce) Grigg, and Charles (Ronda) Grigg; and nieces and nephews Timothy (Abbie)

Knickelbein, Deborah Knickelbein, Sarah Knickelbein, James A. Grigg, Courtney Grigg, Robin Grigg.

Sue's family is forever grateful to Dr. Timothy Schmidt and his team at the UW Carbone Cancer Center for their unparalleled care and support for Sue during this journey.

A private ceremony was held at the Natural Path Sanctuary in Verona Wisconsin on January 4th.

Memorials can be made to Natural Path Sanctuary in Verona or Safe Haven Pet Sanctuary in Green Bay.