Tom was born on December 28, 1950, in Fort Madison, Iowa, the son of Henry and Pauline (Bentler) Pieper. He grew up in the Fort Madison area and on July 21, 1973, was united in marriage to Suzanne Fisher in Fort Madison. Tom and Sue were blessed with a son, Ryan. Tom worked in agriculture for most of his career and was proud of his farming heritage. He started farming in Iowa and later purchased a farm in Missouri where he spent the majority of his working years. Wherever Tom was, he was amongst friends. He had a warm and outgoing personality and conversation came easy to him. Whether it was a friend or neighbor stopping by the garage to say hello while he tinkered or striking up a conversation at a local store, Tom was always welcoming and willing to chat. Tom was generous and helpful and would truly do anything he could to help a loved one, friend, or stranger in need. He was also skilled with his hands. He could fix pretty much anything. After moving to Flagstaff, Arizona, Tom worked as an apartment maintenance supervisor and started a handyman business. Tom was a loving husband, father, and grandfather and he will be deeply missed but forever remembered by those he leaves behind.
