

Frederick Amann First Amann In Eagle

Frederick Amann was a notable resident of Eagle, Wisconsin. Born on March 5, 1835, he served as a Civil War veteran in Company H of the 1st Wisconsin Cavalry¹. After the war, he settled in Eagle, where he lived for many years. Frederick Amann passed away on March 6, 1919, and is buried in Oak Ridge Cemetery in Eagle².

His family included his wife, Helen Long, who was born on April 22, 1851, and passed away on September 23, 1924¹. They had at least two sons, Joseph and Julius Amann