There were church services held in the a. m., with 86 at Sunday School with Mr. Dean Swift as Supt. After Sunday School the smaller children were taken down to the Lake to play under the supervision of Miss Marjorie Garlock. Rev. Foulke then led in singing and gave a very interesting patriotic sermon.

NEW ROOF

The church at Pleasant Valley has a new roof, thanks to the generosity of the neighborhood and a few outside friends. About a year and a half ago, Rev. Foulke appointed 4 committees, each to get up some social event to raise money for the Roofing Fund. Later a committee was appointed to canvass the community for personal donations. Each committee did so well and the men of the church each donated a day and some 2 days work so that the church is shingled and paid for, the platform is to be enlarged, and money has been put aside for this and there is around $100 left. This will be kept separate from the other church money and will be known as the Repair Fund. WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Entire Pacific War Strategy Changed By Latest Allied Attacks in Solomons; RAF and U. S. Air Force Rock Europe With New Series of Non-Stop Bombings

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper. Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

Troops in Maj. Gen. Sanderford Jarman's anti-aircraft artillery command receive alert warning of approaching planes in practice drill and are about to release barrage balloon. Besides forcing enemy planes to high altitudes thereby affecting bombing efficiency, barrage balloons' cables are strong enough to destroy any craft striking them.

MacARTHUR ATTACKS: Advance in Pacific

Under cover of bursting shells and strong aerial formations, American forces in the South Pacific strengthened their hold on the Solomon islands and opened up another front against the Japanese in New Guinea.

Protected by big guns of the navy and a protective canopy thrown across the skies by fighter planes, U. S. troops scored a surprise landing on Rendova and New Georgia islands in the Solomons, and soon were shelling the big Jap air base on Munda.

To the west, American units swarmed ashore on the Huon gulf of New Guinea, and soon were advancing toward the important Japanese position at Salamaua, already menaced by an Allied force which had hacked its way through the jungle to within 12 miles of the outpost.

Between these two theaters of operation, American forces occupied the Woodlark and Trobriand islands without opposition.

More than 100 Japanese planes were shot down resisting the American landings. Our own losses were 17, along with a 7,000 ton transport and several other ships damaged in the dangerous reedy waters of the Solomons.

FOOD SUBSIDIES: Banned by Congress

The administration's plans for the use of subsidies to "roll back" retail food prices were strongly jolted by congressional action in passing the Commodity Credit corporation bill outlawing such payment except as incentives to producers. As a result, the "rollbacks" recently instituted on meat and butter would be wiped out, with payments only being made on previous commitments.

In passing the bill, congress acted in opposition to administration support of the subsidy program. Prior to passage, the War Labor board came out for "rollbacks" to offset the increasing cost of living, which threaten its policy of limiting wage boosts to 15 per cent over January, 1941.

In passing the bill which extends the life of the CCC for two more years and adds 750 million dollars to its lending authority, congress permitted payment of 150 million dollars for subsidizing increased transportation costs and the production of critical minerals and food.

CHINA: Press Japs Back

See-saw warfare in China continued, with Chinese forces recapturing a large section of Owchihkow on the Yangtze river, thus driving the Japanese further out of the great rice bowl which they had threatened to overrun. Assisting the Chinese in their successful counterattack was the American air force, which has been established in the southeast of China. Under leadership of Gen. Claire Chennault, the Yanks have been concentrating on Japanese locomotives, freight trains and other heavy equipment which the enemy finds most difficult to replace.

Japanese attacks near Shanghai and Swatow were also checked, with Chinese troops regaining several important points at Swatow, once famous treaty port on the Kwangtung coast.

HIGHLIGHTS . . . in the week's news

RICKENBACKER: Capt. Edward Rickenbacker visited the Russian front while on an official mission to Moscow for the secretary of war.

MILK: Synthetic milk, made of vegetable oils, was pronounced an unsatisfactory substitute by the two government experts. The artificial product failed to stimulate growth and development properly in feeding tests.

EUROPE: Clearing a Path

Europe rocked from all sides as British and American air squadrons continued pounding vital Axis industries, installations and air-dromes.

Nowhere did the Axis find rest. British bombers flew into Germany's Ruhr to strike at the already badly battered industrial centers, and even while the blockbusters and incendiaries plummeted roofward, the Nazis Munitions Minister Walter Speers complained that Axis workmen were compelled to labor in the open in many places.

In the Mediterranean American Flying Fortresses, accompanied by Lightning fighters, struck at airfields in Sicily, apparently striving to cripple bases from which Axis craft could oppose Allied landing expeditions.

Off to the east, American bombers began lambasting Axis air-dromes and installations in Greece, along the route an Allied army might take to invade the Balkans. In anticipating a major Allied drive in this direction, the Axis reported fortification of mountain passes along the whole rugged Grecian coast.

HOGS: Flood Market

With principal markets flooded with heavy receipts, prices on hogs dropped and government and industry representatives appealed to farmers to restrict shipments.

Although the government had promised to support prices for 240 to 270 pound pigs at $13.75, hogs of this weight brought less as a result of the large receipts. It was explained packers lacked the labor to handle such huge supplies.

Prices for hogs over the 270 pound weight sagged as the government made no commitment to prop returns at the $13.75 mark. The action was seen as a move to induce farmers to market pigs at lighter weights to relieve the critical corn situation, which continued to plague processors and manufacturers, who said they would be compelled to seriously restrict operations unless further grain was forthcoming.

GAS: Tight Pinch

Completion of the big oil pipe line in the Middlewest and declining petroleum production in California might well spell a tightening of gasoline supplies in those sections within the near future, Secretary of the Interior Harold Ickes declared. At the same time, Ickes could see no relief in the gasoline situation in the East.

In all cases, Ickes said, the services' huge consumption of petroleum is digging deeply into the nation's supply. Ickes cited Lieut. Gen. Somervell's estimate that military demands now approximate 1,000,000 barrels a day, exclusive of gasoline and lubricating products, while American refining capacity stands at 3,850,000 barrels.

Completion of the big pipe line in the Middlewest, Ickes said, will free many tank cars for haulage of oil from the area east of the Mississippi. However, Ickes pointed out, it is this area which is suffering from a decline in production, and further diversion of its supplies necessarily will result in a further pinch in civilian consumption there.

WALLACE VS. JONES: Renew Feud

War Mobilization Director James F. Byrnes' efforts to patch up the feud between Vice President Henry Wallace and Secretary of Commerce Jesse Jones apparently had come to naught as the two ripped into each other once more.

Cause of the controversy was Wallace's charge that Jones, as Reconstruction Finance chairman, had been niggardly and slow in advancing funds to Wallace's Board of Economic Warfare for the purchase and development of strategic material abroad. Jones struck back by stating that the BEW initiated only 5 per cent of the government's purchases.

Wallace started the ball rolling again by stating that the two disputants had agreed to have the BEW warfare ask congress for separate funds to continue operations. Then he repeated his charges that Jones' agency had been slow to act on BEW projects.

Flaring up, Jones called Wallace's statement "dastardly," and repeated his demands for a congressional investigation of the BEW.

BLOOD PLASMA

The latest miracle of transfusion—plasma—has been described as the No. 1 agent in saving the lives of our American soldiers.

Plasma is the liquid element in the blood in which the red and white cells float. By adding salt of sodium citrate to fresh blood, the blood remains unclotted and is allowed to stand for two or three days, during which the cells settle and the plasma then is poured off.

Formerly, it was necessary to "type" blood since it was discovered in 1900 that substances in certain bloods destroyed red corpuscles in other kinds. Plasma, however, removes these substances and makes use of the fluid general.

Dried or frozen, plasma can keep for weeks or months. It can be shipped to any part of the world and used. Through the agency of the American Red Cross, blood donors throughout the country are making plasma possible.

MINERS: 'Return,' Ickes Pleads

Despite the plea of Secretary of Interior Harold Ickes to return to work, about 150,000 miners remained idle. Most seriously affected were the steel companies' coal fields in Pennsylvania.

Declaring the miners' wage demands were among many worked in Washington, Ickes said it was necessary for particular groups to submerge their personal considerations for the general welfare. He then asked the miners to return to the pits "on the eve of the greatest military operation in history."

More than 400,000 other miners were back at their jobs following their union's decision to return to work only if the government maintained control of the mines. Although granted a wage concession amounting to 20 cents a day, it was expected that the miners might press efforts to obtain compensation for travel to and from their working stations.

ARMY: Arms Program Cut

Emphasis of war production on aircraft, cargo ships and navy combat vessels has resulted in a reduction of the army ground supply program and delayed full equipment of its forces until 1944, Lieut. Gen. Brehon Somervell declared.

Because of the production drop, Somervell said, the army has been compelled to ship equipment in camps to the fighting front. Not only does this affect the training of troops, he remarked, but it also tends to lower morale.

Somervell said U. S. and British military chiefs had planned operations for 1943 predicated on a 95 billion dollar production program. But the War Production board stated the industrial output of this country could only approximate 75 billion dollars.

CHURCHILL: Must Co-operate

The United States and Great Britain must continue to co-operate in peace as well as in war to assure their security, Prime Minister Winston Churchill declared in a speech in which he also predicted heavy fighting "before the leaves of autumn fall."

Stating that Great Britain sought no profit nor desired any aggrandizement from the war, Churchill added that it would accept no compromise.

Rejoicing that May was the best month for the Allies in the U-boat warfare, Churchill revealed that 30 German submarines had been sunk in that month and new ships were being built at a rate of seven to every single loss.

WPA: Finis

Since its beginning in 1935, the WPA oft-times was charged with squander, but when the time came for going out of existence, the agency returned $130,000,000 in unexpended funds and materials to the government.

Officials say that the records will show that WPA spent 10½ billion dollars and employed more than eight million persons. Only a small staff was left behind for liquidation.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Water or food left in an aluminum pressure cooker pits the surface and makes it dark and rough.

Try adding a few drops of lemon juice to rice the next time you cook it. It makes the rice beautifully white and keeps the grains whole.

Keep linens white by packing them in an old pillow case which has been soaked in bluing until it is a deep indigo.

Red and yellow paints mixed together give you orange; red and blue, purple; yellow and blue, green. White paint added to any of these colors will lighten them.

Cleaning is hard on the hands, so equip yourself with extra rubber gloves and wear them every time you do this kind of work. Rub some cold cream under your nails before starting work—you will be delighted to see how quickly you can clean your nails after a good bath.

Earthworms are beneficial to the soil in which they live and no effort should be made to remove them. If considered troublesome, lime water will bring them to the surface.

When melting chocolate, use a small round-bottomed bowl and melt over hot water. Bowl may be set in the top of teakettle or double boiler.

Never pour water on burning fat; it spreads blaze. Extinguish blaze with flour.

Cold Radiant Light

Probably the coldest radiant light made by man is produced by the reaction of certain chemicals in an alkaline solution, says Collier's. While about two gallons in a glass container are bright enough to illuminate a large room for a night photograph, the liquid has no perceptible heat emission, and ice cubes may be floated in it without effect.

SNAPPY FACTS ABOUT RUBBER

Recapped tires will render satisfactory service—if the tire carcass is in good condition, good workmanship is exercised, inflation rules are observed and speed is kept to 35 mph. Have your tires recapped at a reliable shop.

Scientists have developed the fact that when a car is driven at 50 mph there is a centrifugal force of two tons trying to pull the tires apart.

That our standard of living is affected in many ways by the shortage of rubber will be appreciated when it is known that normally about 50,000 items were made with rubber.

Ancient Fishing Methods Still Prevalent in Malta

Precisely as did their forebears in biblical days, the inhabitants of the quaint fishing villages of Marsa and Zurrico, on the island of Malta, in the Mediterranean, today follow the life of the fisherman for their livelihood.

Many of the old fishing methods employed in the early days are in use today. The fishermen use a peculiar type of trap attached to their boat, instead of the nets commonly employed.

Fishermen of Malta are happy, now that the Allies dominate the Mediterranean. No longer do they have to fear the Axis aerial attacks to which they were subjected day after day before the rout of Rommel in Africa.

Fun Outdoors

Your family will like eating outdoors for nothing seems so good as beef barbecues or hamburgers served in the open when appetites are their sharpest, or coffee made on a make-shift stove from a couple of large bricks maneuvered to hold the old granite coffee pot in place.

Food is good and wholesome, and there's plenty of it whether you cook it at home and wrap it up to take with you to the spot of your choice, or if you gather twigs and cook to order. Make use of the back yard for your barbecue, or take to the woods or lake, even if you have to use the bicycle. The change from eating on the dining room table will be a welcome change and will do wonders toward perking up summer appetites.

Make outdoor eating as convenient as dining at home. Be sure to include such things as salt and pepper, napkins, plenty of cups, plates and silverware in your basket to make the family comfortable.

A spicy sauce with beef or veal makes up a delicious barbecue. The pound and a quarter of meat is enough for 12 buns—just in case you're interested in stretching those precious red points:

- *Barbecued Beef on Buns.
- 1 1/2 pounds beef or veal
- 1 cup thinly sliced onions
- 1 clove garlic, chopped (optional)
- 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
- 1/2 cup catsup
- 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper

Cut meat in 1-inch cubes and brown in hot fat. Add 1 cup water and simmer 1 1/2 hours until tender. Brown onions and garlic in hot fat and add to cooked meat with remainder of ingredients. Make on outdoor stove or wrap carefully in container with plenty of towels to keep warm, and take to barbecue. To serve, spoon on to warmed buns.

Hamburgers are still a great favorite for outdoor eating, particularly now since hamburger still has fairly low point value. This recipe makes tasty and tender, well seasoned hamburgers:

- Prize Hamburgers (Makes 24 hamburgers)
- 4 pounds hamburger
- 1/2 cup chili sauce
- 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
- 1 1/2 tablespoons salt
- 1 teaspoon onion salt
- 1/2 teaspoon celery salt
- 24 buns, toasted and buttered

Mix hamburger well with sauce and seasonings. Form into 24 patties.

Lynn Says

The Score Card: Ceiling prices are in effect for such vegetables as cabbage, carrots, lettuce, spinach, snap beans and tomatoes.

Watch for changes in point values on meats and other red stamp foods. Look, too, for the ceiling prices on many cuts of meat. The butcher usually posts ceiling prices on his wall.

Your butter and cheese man can collect your points before he leaves your order. In this way he won't wake you up if he comes early, or if you're not at home later in the day. Should he fail to be able to fill your order, he must give you a ration check for points given him but not used, and you can turn this in to your local war price and rationing board.

Uniform prices for poultry have been established, and the campaign against the poultry black market is swinging into shape.

ties and fry slowly in hot fat until browned and done, on both sides. When nearly done invert the bottom half of a bun over the hamburger so that bun will be steamed and toasted. The other half may be toasting on a stick while one rests on hamburger. Place other half on hamburger when ready to eat.

Many families are fond of barbecued spareribs on their jaunts outdoors. You'll like this one, particularly the sauce:

- Barbecued Spareribs. (Serves 4)
- 3 to 4 pounds ribs, cut in pieces
- 1 lemon
- 1 large onion
- 1 cup catsup
- 1/2 cup Worcestershire sauce
- 1 teaspoon chili powder
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 2 dashes tabasco sauce
- 2 cups water

Place ribs in shallow roasting pan, meaty side up. On each piece place an unpeeled slice of lemon, a thin slice of onion. Roast in hot oven (450 degrees), 30 minutes. Combine remaining ingredients, bring to a boil and pour over ribs. Continue baking in a moderate oven (350 degrees) for 30 minutes. Baste ribs several times with sauce.

Let the green salad for the outdoor supper be as green and sprightly as you can make it. A smart idea in making the salad is to toss all the greens together, but add the salad dressing only just before eating to allow the salad to keep its crispness:

- Chef's Favorite Salad.
- 1/2 head of lettuce
- 2 cups spinach leaves
- 2 tomatoes, cut in wedges
- 1/2 cup sliced radishes
- 1/2 green pepper, cut in rings
- 3 green onions
- 1 stalk celery, cut in pieces
- 1/2 cup french dressing

Break lettuce into bite-sized pieces and toss together with other vegetables. Just before serving, add dressing and serve from large bowl. Have all ingredients well chilled.

If you have a host of hearty eaters and would enjoy a luscious pie, the combination of strawberries with rhubarb is a happy choice: *Strawberry-Rhubarb Pie.

- 1 cup sugar
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
- 2 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca
- 1/4 cup orange juice
- 3 cups cut rhubarb
- 1 recipe pastry
- 1 cup sliced strawberries
- 1 tablespoon butter

Combine sugar, salt, nutmeg, tapioca, orange juice and rhubarb; place in 9-inch pie pan lined with pastry. Top with strawberries and dot with butter. Arrange whole pastry top or lattice covering. Bake in hot oven (450 degrees) for 10 minutes, then in moderate oven (350 degrees) for 30 minutes.

On the other hand, fresh fruits by themselves or with a few cookies may be more to your liking. Be sure to wash them carefully, so they do not bruise, wrap them in waxed paper, and toss them into the red-checked tablecloth that you're fastening together at the corners.

Postal Rates Were High Out of Gold Fields in '48

Fifty cents was the charge for sending a single-page letter from Oregon to Missouri in 1946. But in 1848 mail service established in the gold fields of the western states broke all records for exorbitant postal rates. For each letter delivered, the addressee had to pay an ounce of gold dust, worth then about $15.

Newspapers were used as letters in the middle of the 19th century because it cost 25 cents to send a letter by mail. To save money, many economical people sent newspapers instead at a much lower rate and underlined words to form messages.

One Bit of Tough Detail That Smith Didn't Mind

Two men worked side by side in a War Production board office. They never spoke, but each watched the other. One man left work daily at four o'clock. The other toiled on till six or later.

Some months passed. Then the harder-working of the two approached the other.

"I beg your pardon," he said, "but do you mind telling me how you can clean up your work every day at four o'clock?"

"Not at all," said the other man. "When I come to a tough piece of detail, I mark it, 'Refer to Mr. Smith.' I figure that, in a department as large as this, there is sure to be a Mr. Smith. And I must be right; those papers never come back."

The harder worker started to remove his coat.

"Brother," he said, "prepare for action. I'm Mr. Smith."

And though there are Post Office restrictions on packages to overseas Army men, you can still send Camels to soldiers in the U. NOTICE OF SALE STATE OF WISCONSIN: COUNTY COURT, WAUKESHA COUNTY. STATE BANKING COMMISSION OF WISCONSIN, as Statutory Receiver for Bank of Eagle, a Wisconsin Corporation of Eagle, Wisconsin, Plaintiff,

KATIE L. GLASSCO, sometimes written Glessco or Glasco, formerly Katie L. Whettam, sometimes written Katherine L. Whettam, and CARL KALB, Defendants.

By virtue of a judgment of foreclosure and sale made in the above entitled action and perfected on the 10th day of June, 1942, the undersigned, Sheriff of the County of Waukesha, State of Wisconsin, will sell at the east door of the Court House in the City of Waukesha, on the 19th day of August, 1943, at ten o'clock in the forenoon on that day, the real estate and mortgaged premises directed by said judgment to be sold and therein described as follows, to-wit:

On June 30, the end of the fiscal year, the debt of this nation was 140 billion 796 million dollars. We had spent during this fiscal year 78 billion dollars, and we had taken in 22 billion, leaving a deficit of 55 billion in round figures.

It is evident that in the next fiscal year we will spend probably close to 100 billion dollars. It is likewise evident that taxes must go up. But this year we will have a national income of around 140 billion dollars.

We haven't merchandise available and we should not get into a bidding spree between ourselves for the merchandise which we have. The more we pay out in taxes now, the less future generations will have to pay.

There are two powerful forces in the history of mankind—the force of military might and moral force. We are doing out utmost to apply physical force to the enemy.

But are we doing our utmost to apply moral force to achieve the beneficent ends we seek—namely, peace? In the midst of war, human nature remains basic. Psychological influences are present in time of war as in time of peace.

Many persons believe that the only way to win is to apply the utmost of physical energy and to hate the enemy. Many persons think that the peace of an enduring nature can be achieved by continuing to hate and by continuing to hold in subjugation a conquered people for all time.

What is little realized is that peoples who are proud and virile, people who are conscious of an injustice done them, will remain sullen and unconquerable. Their minds and energies will be fixed on the best way to achieve revenge.

We maintain always two departments of national defense—War and Navy. We should maintain a Department of Peace.
