I. Dean Jordan, Minister

July 17, 1950

Dear

We are writing this letter to invite and urge you to share in the inspiring Loyalty Day Service next Sunday morning at nine-thirty o'clock.

No other service in the year means so much to Christ in whom you trust and the church you promised, "to support according to your ability."

Never was religion more needed, and never was your help more necessary than today.

Your pledge aids little children learning to live
Your pledge helps young people to grow in Christian ideals and Christian life.
Your pledge makes possible uncounted services through your minister.
Your pledge preaches the Gospel of love around the world.

We are asking you and all other members of Eagle Church to do two things.

First, that you read the enclosed folder about the needs of Eagle Church and the plans for Loyalty Sunday.
Second, that you be present this Sunday at the great Loyalty Service and make your generous pledge with your fellow members.

The members of the official board of the church have voted to set a standard of five percent of their income as their part in supporting the church, with the goal as ten percent. Some of the members have reached the ten percent goal. Let us follow in the path of these standard bearers.

God will richly bless and prosper you as you pledge to help Him build a Christian world. He cannot do it without your help!

"It is easy when every member helps."

Cordially in Christ's Service
Loyalty Sunday Committee
