Dear Harriet: A letter from Fern and Jamie Bovee yesterday enclosed a clipping from the Freeman telling of Graham Gainer's death. Will you continue to live in your cottage even though Graham will not be there to be your helpful landlord? Let me know, please.

Things are about as usual here. I continue to hobble with my cane and to wobble with my pen. I am not discouraged. Although progress is well nigh imperceptible I guess there is progress. At least I can continue being independent, although I still need the help of a family friend who has my power of attorney.

Young Jack has enrolled in a technical university in Terre Haute, Indiana. His sister Gillian has chosen to continue (she's in third year college) at the Whitewater State University, although she lives apart from her parents. Now, Lewis and Adam flew to Michigan where they will drive with one of Adam's brothers to get a glimpse of New England in September and early October. Love to you - Mabel
