

MOLOKAI, HAWAII

Randall Joseph Houk

Feb. 17, 1952 — June 6, 2025

Randy J. Houk (73), a man of unique character and a generous heart, passed away peacefully at home in Molokai, HI on June 6, 2025.

In his hometown of Eagle, WI, he was an avid hunter of raccoons, coyotes, bear, and rabbits and respected as a talented trainer of Beagles, Jack Russell Terriers, and coon dogs. Ever ready to lend a helping hand, Randy served holiday dinners for his St. Theresa's Catholic Church community. He also enjoyed roasting chickens and pigs for family and friends' outdoor parties. He was very proud of earning a marketing degree from WCTC (Waukesha County Technical College) and his 40 years of working as a machinist.

In his retirement home of Kaunakakai, HI, he was known for opening the church windows before Saturday service at St. Damien's Catholic Church, and walking the sidewalks of the Ranch Camp neighborhood. He enjoyed spending time with his grandchildren and step-grandchildren. He also loved to share stories with his friends, old and new.

He is predeceased by his parents Claire and Miriam Houk and sister-in-law Josie.

He is survived by his daughter Leah (Tony) Aquino, and by his two brothers, Roger (Dana) and Rodney Houk, both of WI; beloved foster sister, Bernice McKinney of LA; and many nieces, nephews, and cousins.

A memorial service will take place at St. Damien's Church in Molokai, HI with burial in the St. Theresa's Cemetery of Eagle, WI.
