DONATING TO CHARITY ~ Two retired Eagle men, Rocky Heytens (left) and Harry Bowey, who are regular patrons of the Wal-Mart snack bar, donated over $100 to the Children's Miracle Network over the past month. The men have given donations each day over the past month. For each donation, another paper balloon with their name on it was taped on the wall of the snack bar by department manager Jan Blau (also pictured). Wal-Mart is hosting several activities through May 14 to raise money for the network. To date, the total raised is $12,650. (Photo by Jim Flaherty)
