Special thanks to Doug Weiss for the help in selecting the photos and getting me going, Oberlander for his wisdom, and charm (where's the donuts), Dave for the time spent answering all of the unbearable questions, and Robin who showed me the "tricks of the trade", Greg for the balance of type and life, Leigh Irwin for Past and Present, Carol A. Zingybell for her literary profoundness and craziness, Mike McNeil and Pat Miller, the pressmen (who at this moment) I hope may bring this calendar to life, and all of the people who posed for their picture to make this possible.

Thanks (or sorry) to the people I've spent the last two years driving crazy; Leigh Irwin (the race to be the last in the room?), Karen Fischer (somewhere over the rainbow), Julie Jacobson (keep on smiling), Laura Miller (Mrs. Miller), Mike McNeil (life's a party), Pat Miller (nice picture), Ron Sweeny (sure glad you offered to trade drawers), Tom Utter (I'm glad I'm not the only one laughing), The Fab Four - Gary, Dave, Don, and Bob for making classes a ... learning experience. Speaking of experience, where's Larry?

Also thanks to the many others who offered help, suggestions, encouragement, and the shoulders whether they wanted to or not; Susie (all of the above), Jeannie (the homecooked meals and pencil), Ken, Jerry, Jim (just three Dupuses), Bill (Willie Willie Willie!), Connie and Carmen (just two more Dupuses)

A very special thanks to Ma and Pa for coming up with the family photos and history, love and tolerance, and the miscellaneous too numerous to mention here and now
