

Prisoners of Japs

Joseph Hass, 20, son of Vincent Hass, 937 S. 112th st., town of Wauwatosa, is a prisoner of the Japs in

Joseph Hass
Trade and Technical high school.

the Philippines, according to word just received by his father. Hass was a private in the coast artillery and was on Corregidor when it fell. Young Hass joined the artillery when he was 18 and went directly to the islands. Before entering the service he attended the Boys'