

Moses Johnson Enos Descendant of James Eno

James Eno (1625–1682) is the direct ancestor of Moses Johnson Enos (1799–1877), who married Caroline Frances Child. The lineage spans six generations, beginning in Windsor, Connecticut, and moving through Vermont to Wisconsin.

Here's a detailed generational trace:

Lineage from James Eno to Moses Johnson Enos

1. James Eno (1625–1682)

- Settled in Windsor, Connecticut
- Married Anna Bidwell, then Elizabeth Holcomb
- Children included James Eno Jr. and John Eno

2. John Eno (b. 1658 – d. 1688)

- Son of James Eno Sr.
- Married Mary Phelps
- Lived in Windsor and Simsbury, Connecticut

3. William Eno (1684–1763)

- Son of John Eno
- Married Mary Gillett
- Moved to Simsbury, Connecticut

4. Salmon Eno (1779–1842)

- Descendant of William Eno
- Lived in Simsbury, Connecticut
- Married Mary Case
- Their children included Abner Enos

5. Abner Enos (1767–1841)

- Son of Salmon Eno
- Married Sibylla Johnson

- Lived in Vermont
- Their children included Moses Johnson Enos

6. Moses Johnson Enos (1799–1877)

- Born in Leicester, Vermont
- Married Caroline Frances Gulmore Child in 1840
- Moved to Eagle, Waukesha County, Wisconsin
- Children: Frances A. Enos, Clarence H. Enos, Addie Enos

Migration Path

- Windsor, CT → Simsbury, CT → Vermont → Wisconsin
- This reflects the westward movement of many colonial families seeking land and opportunity.

Name Evolution

- The surname evolved from Eno to Enos, likely due to phonetic spelling changes and regional dialects.
- Moses Johnson Enos is often listed as “Enos” in Wisconsin records, though his ancestry traces directly to James Eno.

Sources

- FamilySearch profile of Moses Johnson Enos
- The Eno and Enos Family in America by Douglas C. Richardson (available via Ancestry)
- WikiTree Eno Genealogy for collaborative family tree data