

People

PEOPLE

Pat Hawes

Aug. 27, 1999

September 2, 1999—Palmyra Enterprise, Palmyra, Wisconsin—

Eagle Postmaster Hawes retiring after 29 years

Eagle Postmaster Pat Hawes (right) accepts a Post Office Service Award from Nancy Borst (left), acting manager of Post Office Operations for the Milwaukee District. Hawes is retiring after 29 years of service to the Eagle Post Office. Her last day was Aug. 27. The award for honorable service included a congratulatory letter from Akinyinka O. Akinyele, Postal Service lead executive for the Milwaukee District. Hawes started at the Eagle Post Office in 1970 as a temporary clerk and was appointed postmaster in 1981. She said she feels "wonderful" about her retirement, but will miss the people from the post office. She said she looks forward to camping, traveling and spending time with her grandchildren. A temporary postmaster will be placed at the Eagle Post Office until a postmaster is appointed. The hiring process for a postmaster takes about three months.