Shearer Estate

The widow of a former Eagle Town Board supervisor left an estate of $182,908, according to an inventory filed with the Register in Probate.

Irene R. Shearer died Nov. 20 at age 67. Her husband Waldo, who died five months earlier, had been on the Town Board for many years. They operated a farm until about five years before his death.

The bulk of the estate, which is subject to tax, was divided among three members of a Muskego family who were friends of Mrs. Shearer. There was also a separate $1,000 bequest to a nephew and $250 each for St. Theresa Catholic Church of Eagle and the Divine Word Seminary in East Troy.

The estate included the farm-homestead valued at $151,200, a land contract of about $11,100, bank accounts of about $12,000, savings bonds, accounts receivable from several persons and personal property.
