Miss Patricia Louise Reed Weds Robert William Hawes

Miss Patricia Louise Reed exchanged her marriage vows with Robert William Hawes, the son of Mrs. G. Hawes, and the late Mr. Hawes in an 8 p.m. ceremony on Saturday, Oct. 8, at Eagle Methodist church. The Rev. Alvin Briggs performed the marriage service and Roger Sweet was the soloist. A reception was held immediately following the rites.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forest L. Reed, Eagle, was wearing a white gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over satin. The lace bodice had a scalloped edge V neckline and sheer yoke of net. The tiny collar and long fitted sleeves were of lace. Her bouffant chapel length skirt was of tiered nylon tulle over satin with a long scalloped edged lace peplum.

Miss Reed's headpiece was a Chantilly lace triple crown trimmed with translucent sequins and seed pearls and from it fell her full fingertip veil of imported English illusion with a lace edge. She carried an all white bouquet.

Ice blue crystallette waltz length gowns were worn by the maid of honor, Miss Sylvia Beringer, and the bridesmaid, Miss Ethel Anne Hawes. They had matching ice blue velvet headpieces and carried colonial bouquets of red roses and white mums.

Two flower girls were Judy and Cynthia Ann Stolp.

Keith Schlitz was the best man and the ushers were John Schick and Bill Evans.

The mother of the bride was attired in a navy blue lace and crepe dress with a corsage of pink rosebuds. The groom's mother pinned a similar corsage to her navy blue dress.

The bride attended Palmyra high school and Milwaukee Business institute. The groom went to Waukesha high school. They will be at home at Clarks park, Eagle lake.
