'SURVIVOR' PICKS UP HER PRIZE ~ Susan Hawk, the fourth-place finisher in the original CBS series "Survivor," picked up the keys to her 2001 Pontiac Aztek GT last week at Horter Chevrolet-Pontiac in Mukwonago. She won the truck while participating in a contest with four other Survivors on an episode of the Rosie O'Donnell Show last September. She received the keys from Horter sales manager Kent Catarozoli, while owner Tom Horter (right) looked on. The vehicle is valued at $30,810. Horter agreed to provide local delivery of the truck, as Hawk and her husband, Tim, live in Eagle. For more comments from Hawk's Survivor experience, see the Bit 'O Blarney column on page 14 of this issue. (Photo by Jim Flaherty)
