

1983 John M. Daggett

John M. Daggett, of W349 S10110 Bittersweet Ct., Eagle Town, died of emphysema December 8 at his home.

He was a longtime Eagle Spring Lake resident and was retired from U.S. Gypsum Co. Fiberesin Plastics, Oconomowoc. He was on the Eagle Public Library board and was instrumental in arranging for the donation of the Partridge House as the library's new home. He was a member of St. Mary Episcopal Church, Dousman, and was a vestryman there for six years. He was also a member of the International Crane Foundation of Baraboo. He was also appointed to the first Waukesha County Federated Library system's board.

He is survived by wife Margie; daughter Julie Mann of Glendora, Calif.; sisters Jane Dillenberger of Berkeley, Calif., and Dorothy Olson of Lafayette, Ind., and two grandchildren.

A memorial service was at St. Mary Episcopal Church. The body was cremated at Valhalla Memorial Park.

The family suggests memorials to the library or the church.

Mealy Funeral Home, Eagle, was in charge of arrangements.
