

People-Hill

Charles Hill

Profile

Dec 31 -
1836

History of Waukesha County, Chicago, Western Historical Company, 1880

CHARLES HILL, farmer, Sec. 1; P. O. Eagle; born in Upwell, Cambridgeshire, Eng., Dec. 31, 1836; at 18 he left for America, and was for eighteen months in Fairfield, Herkimer Co., N. Y.; located in Eagle, 1855, and, gradually working his way up, bought a farm of the Government, in Dunn Co., Wis.; exchanged this in 1865 for 73 acres of his present farm; has added 200 acres on Secs. 1, 2, and 12; remodeled, enlarged and painted his house; re-sided and placed on a basement wall his 28x60 foot barn, and made a most pleasant home. The record of this man is one of steady and honorable progress; married, Dec. 18, 1861, Miss Henrietta Trow, of Eagle, by whom he has two children-Ellsworth and Lutie. Mrs. Hill is a member of the M. E. Church. As a farmer, Mr. Hill has 150 fine-wool sheep, with other stock, and returns his wheat crop of 1879 at 700 bushels.

---

Eagle Quill

People Hill, Charles R.

June 30, 1916

CHARLES R. HILL WRITES
FROM CAMP DOUGLAS.

Under date of June 26 we received a most welcome letter from Prof. Charles R. Hill, principal of the Eagle state graded school, a member of Co. C, First Wisconsin infantry, stationed at Camp Douglas. Mr. Hill gives a fine description of soldiers' equipments, camp life and routine work. He says: "About forty of their members are of the Normal school, ten of the university. Their company belongs to the First Battalion with Monroe, Madison and Beloit companies. Mr. Joachim is colonel. Mr. Garlach, major; Mr. Richardson, brigadier general. He wishes to be remembered to all and will write again as soon as convenient.