

Woman celebrates 103 years of life

WAUKESHA – Clara Burton, a resident at the Virginia Health and Rehabilitation Center, turned 103 years old on May 22. She had one son, has three granddaughters, and one great-grandson. In the past she made quilts and played cards. She is still sharp as a tack. Recently, she participated in a spelling bee and took second place.

