

THE COBBLESTONE

Built in 1848 by Ahira Rockwell Hinkley, first settler in Eagle Township, who came here in 1836. This house is one of the best examples of cobblestone work in Wisconsin. To insure uniformity in size, the stones were dropped through a hole in a board. The structure is architecturally unique in having no corner slabs, or quoins.

The State of WISCONSIN

The Ahira Hinkley House

IN Waukesha County, WISCONSIN, WAS ENTERED ON THE National Register of Historic Places

BY THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR ON January 21, 1974

and is therefore accorded the benefits and protections of the National Historic Preservation Act of 1966. This site was deemed by the State Historic Preservation Review Board, the Director of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin, who serves as the State Historic Preservation Officer, and the Keeper of the National Register of Historic Places to be imbued with historical characteristics of such significance as to warrant the appreciation and concern of our state and nation.

Certified by:

Patrick J. Lucey
_____
GOVERNOR, STATE OF WISCONSIN

James Norton Smith
_____
STATE HISTORIC PRESERVATION OFFICER