

Milwaukee Chapter, D. A. R.

MILWAUKEE, WIS.,

Oct 10th 1897

Mrs. Mary Hinkley

You have been accepted by the National Board D. A. R., and are now a "Daughter," and have all the privileges of a member of the National Society. Our Chapter meets at three o'clock P. M., on the first Friday of every month, from October until June, at _____

Our Insignia (price eight dollars) is patented, and can only be purchased of J. E. Caldwell & Co., Philadelphia, and a permit must be obtained from the "Registrar General" before the Insignia can be purchased.

The Rosette (price thirty cents) to be worn on informal occasions, can be had of the Chapter Registrar, who will order a permit for the Insignia if desired.

You can get a permit from the Chapter Secretary, to have the use of the Chapter Die, at Tracy's or Des Forges book store, to stamp your stationery, or you can order D. A. R. stationery direct from J. E. Caldwell & Co., of Philadelphia, who will send a price list on application. You can also order stationery from the Curator D. A. R., No. 902 F Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., or you can have a die of your own.

The "American Monthly," the official magazine of the society, costs one dollar per year, and can be ordered of Miss L. Lockwood, No. 902 F Street, Washington, D. C.

If you wish to invite a guest to a Chapter Meeting, you can do so under the following conditions: The guest must be a non-resident, and twenty-five cents must be paid to the Treasurer. If the meeting is to be a social meeting, the Social Committee must also be notified. If the guest is a member of the National Society, D. A. R., the payment of the twenty-five cents is not required.

Yours sincerely,

Carrie L. Insoles
