

Eagle Librarian Barb Warriner is kept busy with the increased number of persons using the library. She encourages residents to come and experience their library.