

Started
Sept 1980

10-23-80

LIBRARY
STORY-TELLER,
A WANDERING
MINSTREL?

The October 29th Story Hour for pre-schoolers at the Alice Baker Memorial Library has been canceled because our story-teller will be out of town that day. Watch this column for notice of when the next story hour will be scheduled.

10-2-80

ALICE BAKER MEMORIAL LIBRARY HOURS

Just a reminder that the library is here in Eagle, offering many interesting books to read. Library hours are: Monday - 7-8:30 p.m., Wednesday a.m. - 10-12 noon, Wednesday p.m. - 7-8:30, Friday a.m. - 10-12 noon, and Friday p.m. - 2-4:30.

Another item worthy of interest at the library this year is the story hour for preschoolers, which began again on October 1st. The next story hour will be on October 15 and it is tentatively planned that there will be one every two weeks thereafter. Story hours start at 10 a.m. and all are welcome.

BY.
SUSAN LOGSDON

10-9-80

from the hospital and recovering there from the surgery that followed his automobile accident. It would be easy for me to say here that Carl triumphed over all that nearly killed him during the past few weeks. I prefer to say, and I think he would agree, that God triumphed through him. For over two years I've been writing this column and talking to you about Jesus. Talk is easy. But now let me take the opportunity to show you, to point out a concrete example of what God's love can do. Statistically, my father-in-law should probably not be with us. His doctors, the nurses who attended him, are somewhat amazed, and very happy, at his recovery. You are free to call it coincidence, or luck, if you want to, but it's my feeling that there've been too many coincidences among Christians to be written off as merely coincidences. It's my feeling that God moves in love for his children, and answers when they call, and we will never have the opportunity of knowing unless we call. Again, my thanks and that of my family go to everyone who expressed their concern and were with us in prayer.

KETTLE MORAINE EAGLES 4-H

Time to kill? Get active! Join a club - join 4-H! If you're interested, the Kettle Moraine Eagles 4-H will hold a meeting October 22nd at 7:30 p.m. in the basement of the Eagle United Methodist Church. Come and join the fun, learn a new skill and participate in the Waukesha County Fair.

STORY HOUR AT EAGLE'S LIBRARY

The next story hour for preschoolers at our Alice Baker Memorial Library will be on October 15th at 10 in the morning. The story hours, which the library hopes to offer every two weeks, provide an excellent opportunity for little ones to become acquainted early on with the very real enjoyments and benefits to be derived from books. It's a very nice opportunity, too, for their moms or dads to visit the library and catch up on some of the reading they've been wanting to do.

10-16-80

Eagle News

Kettle Moraine Eagles 4-H

The Kettle Moraine Eagles 4-H Club will hold a meeting on Monday, October 22nd at 7:30 p.m. in the basement of Eagle United Methodist Church. If you are a young person who is bored with the usual night-life in Eagle (Is there a usual night-life in Eagle?) why not come to this meeting and join 4-H. Four-H offers some terrific activities, as well as opportunities to learn new skills, and a chance to participate in the Waukesha County Fair, and new members are always welcomed.

Notes from the Alice Baker Memorial Library

The Alice Baker Memorial Library invites your preschool three and four year olds to their story hours. The next one will be on October 29th. Please mark your calendars accordingly. Robin Himebauch is planning many interesting things for your little ones.

The library staff welcomes those readers who are now visiting them on Friday mornings. Remember, the library is always getting in new books for you to enjoy.

10-23-80

LIBRARY
STORY-TELLER,
A WANDERING
MINSTREL?

The October 29th Story Hour for pre-schoolers at the Alice Baker Memorial Library has been canceled because our story-teller will be out of town that day. Watch this column for notice of when the next story

11-13-80

Eagle News

By Susan Logsdon

"A dry crust eaten in peace is better than steak every day along with argument and strife." — Proverbs, 17:1. Perhaps that's something to comfort ourselves with in these inflationary times when it's more and more difficult to afford steak!

There's a new business opening up here in Eagle. Wallace Rupp, who lives out on Sprague Road, is opening a saw mill there, and should be ready for business by the end of this week (right about now for those of you who read this on Friday). Mr. Rupp bought the sawmill equipment last summer in Wittenburg, and will be available to do custom sawing for people in this area.

Alice Baker Memorial Library Notes: Jean Sinclair of the Waukesha County Technical Institute will be coming to our library on Friday, November 14th, between the hours of 10 and 11:30 a.m. Ms. Sinclair will answer questions about WCTI and vocational training. She plans on being in Eagle on the 2nd Friday of each month. Also at the library will be catalogs, flyers and brochures concerning WCTI. So, if you have any questions about WCTI, or if you're interested in going back to school and taking up a career (this might be of special interest to young women whose children are now in school), come down to the library (located in the Eagle United Methodist Church) this Friday and find out what technical schooling can offer you.

11-20-80

The E

News

Eagle News

BY
SUSAN LOGSDON

"Sometimes, love may be all you have, but it's always enough, somehow."

Lots of news this week, and very little time to write it, it seems, so let's get to it!

Alice Baker Memorial Library News — On Thursday, November 13, a film was shown at the Eagle Village and Town Hall to the Senior Citizens. The film, "Remembering Fall" was presented by Mr. E. Zimmerman, an R.S.V.P. (Retired Senior Volunteer Person) from Waukesha, with the help of Doreen Christensen. Although the turn-out was not large, all those present seemed to enjoy the program, and the folks at the library, who arranged for the film, hope to present another one sometime around January. Keep reading this column and we'll try and keep you posted, ok?

Also, please note that the story hour for pre-schoolers will be held next on December 3rd at 10 a.m.

12-11-20

Eagle

of special interest in the Eagle

Poland, Japan, England, Finland, and Germany.

Alice Baker Memorial Library Notes: With the foul weather season here (and, if my experience with Wisconsin weather is correct, the foul weather season will probably stay here 'til sometime in late June!) the staff at the library would like to remind people that if they have any question as to whether or not the library will be open on a given day when the weather is poor, they may call 594-2439 or the Methodist Church office at 594-2111 to find out.

Eagle News

12-25-80

This week's quote is a miniature poem called Star Guides, by William Stafford.

"Any star is enough
If you know what star it is."

Well, here we are in that pleasant social lull immediately before Christmas, when all, or mostly all of the shopping is done, and the kids have seen Santa and placed their orders for toys, and when everyone begins to relax a bit after preparing for Christmas, and sits back to enjoy the fruits of all their work. I like this quiet, family time, don't you?

Parents of Eagle Elementary students, please note that the January P.T.O. meeting will be on Monday evening, January 5th at 7:30 p.m. in the Eagle Elementary School gymnasium.

Alice Baker Memorial Library Notes — The first copy of the large-type edition of the Reader's Digest has arrived at the library and can be found on their Easy - Eye shelf. Thanks are extended by the library to the Eagle Lioness Club for purchasing the subscription.

The staff at the library would also like to take this opportunity to wish everyone in Eagle a very Merry Christmas and a happy new year.

Future college and technical School students: The American Legion and Legion Auxiliary in Eagle offer a scholarship to all Eagle Village and Town high school seniors who plan on continuing their education after high school. Applications may be obtained from your local high school guidance counselor. The deadline for applying is April 15th.