The Bovee Family

Emigrant Ancestors: Matthys and Catherine Barrios Bovie-Bofi-Beaufil-Bovie-Bovee-Bovee

The Matthys Bovie Family

Matthys Bovie (Bofi)

Born in France about 1664. His father was Claus (Nicholas). His parents were Huguenots who were forced to flee France after revoking of the "Edict of Nantes" by Louis XV in 1685. They first found refuge in Holland. It is believed that Matthys married Catherine Barrois in Holland about 1686/7. They then emigrated to the New Netherlands following their marriage. Matthys was a freeholder. This entitled him to purchase land. It is claimed that he bought large holdings in the Bergen, New Jersey area. Both sides of the Hudson River were under the jurisdiction of the Dutch. Matthys lost these holdings to the British because they claimed that he held faulty titles from the Indians. Matthys moved his family northward first to Rensselaer then on to the Schenectady area where he again purchased land and settled at Half Moon. Here he stayed the remainder of his lifetime. It is believed that he made this move following the baptism of his son, Antione, in 1696. He settled in Half Moon in 1699 at which time he baptized his daughter, Maria, in Schenectady. The date of his decease is not known but it is believed that he lived to a great age.

Polly Bovee Arnold daughter of Jacob M. and Jane Dodds Bovee

The Polly Bovee Arnold Family

4 AG 1.

Polly Bovee Arnold

Born Oct. 25, 1787. Married Benedict Arnold Aug. 21, 1806 at Amsterdam, Montgomery County, New York.

Benedict Arnold

Born in 1780. Veteran of the War of 1812. Rank of Major General. Was active in State Militia. Died Mar. 3, 1849.

Children - 5th American Generation - Arnold

1.	Hiram	Born Sept. 26, 1806

6.	Charlotte	Born Jan. 3, 1817
7.	Lorenzo Meigs	Born Sept. 26, 1818
8.	Benedict	Born Apr. 8, 1820

A grandson of Polly and Benedict Arnold - Benedict Arnold Leonard - was in the 32nd and the 73rd New York Volunteers Infantry in the Civil War. He was killed in the Battle of Spottsyvania Court House May 12, 1864. He was 24 years old at the time. He was in the following Battles: Bull Run, West Point, Gaines Hill, White Oak Swamp, Malvern Hill, 2nd Bull Run, Cramptons Gap, Frederberg, Salem Heights and the Wilderness.

Benedict Arnold, Polly's husband, was a nephew of the famed Benedict Arnold, a man I fully believe was badly treated by the military. I have never thought he was a willing traitor. His love for his wife and her unholy love for money were the reasons for his downfall. My sympathy is with Arnold all the way.
